TAX RETURNS SURGE UPWARD IN LOUISIANA

$14 Million Gain Over Last Year's Intake Recorded

BATON ROUGE, La., May 3 (AP) — State income tax returns have rocketed from 150,000 in 1948 to a current 256,000, with another 25,000 expected by the end of 1952.

The upward surge of persons filing returns was reported by state revenue collector W. A. Cooper in a letter to Gov. Earl Long today.

Cooper, reviewing his administration, told the governor "the cost of collecting taxes in Louisiana has been the lowest in the nation for the past three years" but "salaries are higher than they ever have been in the history of the department."

He said tax collections for the first nine months of the current fiscal year are up $14 million over the same period a year ago.

"In 1942," he continued, "the $1.44. In 1951, the cost was $1.06."

In 1940, he said, "when I left as collector the department payroll contained 525 names. Only 19 per cent of these names were on the payroll in 1944. When I again became collector in 1948, there were only approximately 50 of these names on the payroll."

The fact that "48 per cent of the 518 names I found on the payroll when I became collector in 1948" still remain make it "very obvious that employes in the department of revenue fared well without civil service," he added.

Cooper, who will be replaced by Rufus Fontenot of New Orleans when Gov. Elect Kennon takes office, praised Gov. Long for never bringing 'any sort of pressure on me or the revenue department in tax matters" or asking "political consideration in a tax case."

The collector reported "with pride" his "cartoon book" annual reports which had been compliimented by "progressive tax administrators, both nationally and internationally."

The best modern theory of taxing, he said, "holds that payment is less painful to the tax payers and requires less effort on the part of the revenue department if the public knows for what purpose each tax is used.

"The old method of trying to instill fear into the minds of taxpayers has long since been discarded by the more progressive tax administrators."

Summing up his administration, Cooper said the "Automobile Title Law, passed in 1948, has brought more actual work to the revenue department than any other act of the legislature in its history.

"Louisiana went from a most liberal license distribution, with no evidence of ownership, to a very strict law state. . . . during the 15 months the title division has been in operation, we have issued 960,000 vehicle titles, a rate of 3,200 titles per day."

In closing, he thanked Gov. Long for "your cooperation and many courtesies" and said he believed the affairs of the department "have been conducted in the best interests of the public."

Mayor Coon To Deliver Radio Address Monday

Mayor John E. Coon, candidate for re-election, will make a "report to the people" of Monroe in a radio address Monday at 8 p. m. The talk will be heard over stations KNOE, KMLB and KLIC.

Mayor Coon has stated that the proposals for improvement of the city will be discussed as well as the actions taken by the council during the present administration. This will be the first time that the present city official has gone before the people in the present campaign to discuss the issues.

High Court Blocks Truman's Plans To Hike Steel Wages

Justices Order President To Make No Changes In Working Conditions Unless Industry, Management Agrees

WASHINGTON, May 3 (AP)— The Supreme Court, in a swift and unanimous rebuff to President Truman, today blocked his plans to give 650,000 steelworkers a pay raise.

The President, in an extraordinary White House session this forenoon, had issued a virtual ultimatum to steel industry leaders. He told them and union chieftains to sit down and negotiate a wage settlement "now" or he would raise wages "on Monday morning, or as soon as we can get ready."

Seven hours later, after a conference in their chambers, the nine justices acted. They ordered Secretary of Commerce Sawyer, whom Truman had put in charge of the seized industry, to make no change in wages or working conditions unless management agrees.

By a vote of 7 to 2, the high tribunal agreed to review the great legal row over Truman's seizure of the billion dollar industry on April 8 to avert a threatened strike. Meantime government control over the industry continues.

The Supreme Court order against a government-directed wage raise — An order which marked a clash between two high, coordinate branches of the government — came while industry and union leaders were arguing at the White House in the negotiating session Truman had called.

Whether it would mean another walkout by the CIO union was not immediately cleared. Philip Murray, president of the CIO and the steel workers, declined comment but indicated his union members would stay on the job at least for the present.

There was no comment from the White House. Press Secretary Joseph Short said Dr. John R. Steelman, presiding over the bargaining talks, had told the management and union representatives of the court's action.

The White House talks recessed for dinner without comment from any of the parties, and a new session was scheduled tonight.

In the event the workers did leave their jobs in protest against the court-ordered wage freeze, the government as operator of the mills could probably obtain a quick injunction.

But the administration, in arguing against any ban on a wage increase, had said such a prohibi-

Contract Is Awarded For 6th Major School Project

The Monroe City School Board has accepted the low bid of Dye and Mullings, Inc., in the amount of $257,739.00, for the erection of the physical education addition to Neville High School. The contract was signed Thursday afternoon, May 1st, by Mr. Warren F. Taylor, Chairman of the Board, and by Mr. J. S. Mullings, President of Dye and Mullings, Inc. Smith and Padgett of Monroe prepared the plans and specifications.

The addition is the sixth major project of the Monroe City Schools from the funds secured from the sale of bonds authorized by the citizens of Monroe for school improvements and expansions. The other projects presently nearing completion are the elementary schools on Lexington avenue, Orange street, Plum street, the addition to the Sherrouse School, the comprehensive high school on Renwick street.

Renovation and expansion of the existing schools will begin in the immediate future. These projects will be carried out at Barkdull Faulk School, Central Grammar School, Georgia Tucker School, Lida Benton School, and conversion of the present Monroe Colored High School to an elementary school. When the program has been completed Monroe will have school facilities among the best to be found anywhere in comparable cities.

The Neville Addition will be of

FLOOD MADISON IS APPOINTED TO CIVIC POST

H. Flood Madison, prominent Monroe attorney, Friday night formally accepted the post of president of the Board of Directors of the Twin City Community Chest, according to an announcement from the Chest office. He succeeds C. D. McAdams.

Elected to the vice - president post was R. Evans Ethridge, outstanding local businessman, who was cited for his outstanding work as campaign co - chairman last year. J. P. McDonald was re-elected as treasurer.

In announcing the acceptance by Madison to this important civic duty, McAdams said the chest directors were happy over the word that Madison would serve. "This is a big job," McAdams added, "and we are happy to have a man who holds the respect of the entire Twin City business and civic community."

Simultaneous with the election of Madison, Ethridge and McDonald, six new members were elected to the board. These included Sam Bourland and Judge Jesse Heard of West Monroe and R. A. Butz, W. J. Bill Riley, Jr., A. Petrus and Jake Pickens of Monroe.

The City of Monroe is to be the name of a fine new Continental Trailways bus to be placed in service between Raleigh and Dallas this week. A handsome plaque will be placed in a conspicious place telling the name of this city.

A similar designation is to be given other cities on the line when a string of new buses are added to the equipment the next few days.

And speaking of buses, makes us think of a sight we saw the other day. We had never regarded a city bus as 20th cousin to a sewing room, but there is where we were all wrong.

On a DeSiard road bus the past week, a certain pretty, well known young woman entered and selecting a vacant seat seated herself near the front. Then from a capacious box she carried she drew forth scissors, thread, tape measure and a yard long stretch of cloth. Carefully she ran the tape measure up and down the cloth and when assured all was right she began to cut and sew.

Across the aisle from this domestic scene was the lady's friend, and they carried on a conversation as women will, about subjects that are of interest to dressmakers and home makers.

Meantime the passengers con -

Vocational Building Is Advocated

Mayor John E. Coon and Monroe's two commissioners, John P. Simmons and Frank X. Cline, put the city of Monroe on record as favoring a permanent building for the Ouachita Valley Vocational school and have indicated they would send a resolution to this effect to the state legislature.

Joining with the City of Monroe are three other organizations of the Twin Cities, which brings to 21 the total number of organizations favoring a building of a permanent nature. These are: Junior Chamber of Commerce of Monroe —West Monroe, Business & Professional Women's Club, Monroe, and the L. B. Faulk Post No. 13 American Legion, Ladies Auxiliary, of Monroe.

The following organizations have previously recognized the needs for the permanent building: Central Trades and Labor Council, Monroe; West Monroe Business Men's Association; Painters and Decorators Local No. 901, Monroe; Mayor and Board of Aldermen, City of West Monroe; Hudson Leehy Veterans of Foreign Wars, Post No. 3993, West Monroe; Hudson Leehy VFW, Post No. 3993, Ladies Auxiliary, West Monroe; Burnett-Downs Post No. 201, American Legion, West Monroe; West Monroe Kiwanis Club; West Monroe Lions Club; North Monroe Lions Club; Louisiana Federation of Labor; Walter S. Savage, Jr., Post No. 5, (AMVETS) Monroe; Ladies Auxiliary; Barbers Local No. 651, Monroe, Marine corps League; Monroe; and the L. B. Faulk Post roe; Altrurian Book Club, West No. 13, American Legion, Monroe.

DISTRICT V. F. W. MEET IS TODAY

Session Starts This Afternoon At West Monroe Post

Veterans of Foreign Wars Posts of the 13th V. F. W. district of Louisiana will meet in West Monroe today, according to an announcement by District Commander Billy Sullivan.

The meeting will be held at the Hudson - Leehy post home on Natchitoches street beginning at 2:30 p.m. Foreign War veterans from six surrounding towns are expected to be on hand for the meeting at which district officers will be elected and other important matters are subject to discussion.

Sullivan said that State V. F. W. Commander Rex McCollough would attend the meeting.

Post embraced by the 13th district are Jonesboro, Bastrop, Ruston, Bernice, Farmerville, Columbia and West Monroe, according to Sullivan.

CIVIL AVIATION SUPPLY OF GAS IS CURTAILED

DENVER, May 3 (AP) —A 30 per cent slash in use of gasoline for civil aviation purposes, effective next Tuesday, was ordered late today as the strike of the nation's oil workers headed into its fifth day with no apparent sign of immediate settlement in prospect.

The Petroleum Administration for Defense (PAD) said the cut, which will apply to both airlines and private planes, will go into effect at 3:01 a. m. eastern standard time, May 6. The order would halt the use of gasoline for all sport or pleasure flights.

During the period from May 6 to the end of the month, airlines will be limited to 65 per cent of the longer period in March, the actual cut in allowed gasoline will amount to 30 per cent.

The order, if put into effect, would be a severe blow to commercial airline operations. It would probably cause the discontinuance of some short flights and cancellation of others. Some lines were caught with short suplies of gasoline on hand when the strike hit last week.

Meanwhile a possible shutdown of refineries in California, major producer of oil for Korean war operations, loomed.

California refineries have remained open throughout the walkout which was called by 22 AFL, CIO and independent unions last Wednesday.

O. A. Knight, chief of the Oil Workers International Union (CIO) with headquarters in Denver, warned "we will strike certain plants in California if and when necessary.

"Bargaining out there doesn't look too good right now," Knight said. He indicated the unions would wait only a "few more days" for talks between Pacific coast locals and oil companies to "shape up."

The union head said he has "confidential and reliable reports" that some of the companies are shipping aviation gasoline eastward to supply commercial airlines.

"Maybe we made a mistakke in giving them a reprieve. It is beginning to look like they are more concerned with making a dollar than in going along with our action in exempting California from the strike on account of the Korean war," he added.

Union demands in the plant-by-plant negotiations are for a pay hike of 25 cents hourly and 6 and

3 Injured In Accidents

Three Negroes were injured Saturday afternoon in automobile accidents, Monroe police officers reported.

An accident at 18th and Adams streets injured a Negro man and a woman, who was on her way to the grocery store. Police stated that a 1942 Chevrolet, driven by Joe Gordes, Negro, Perryville, headed west on Adams hit a 1949 Jeepster, driven by Clyde Colomons, Negro, Galion, going north on 18th.

Eyewitnesses stated that the Negro woman, identified as Ester Salsberry was on her way to a grocery store located on Adams when the impact of the the collision turned the Chevrolet over and knocked her down.

She was taken to the Charity hospital by the Good Citizens Funeral home but was released a short time later. Gordes was taken to the St. Francis by Mulhearn and was reported to have numerous cuts and bruises.

A Negro woman, identified as Mrs. Joe Jones, was injured when the 1948 Ford her husband was driving hit a parked 1942 Dodge at 1107 Pine street. The Ford rammed the Dodge from the rear police reported.

The woman was taken to the St. Francis by a Hixson Brothers ambulance. Attendants stated that she was six months pregnant and the extent of her injuries was not known.

Hillbilly Wedding Tickets On Sale; Voting Is Heavy

Tickets to the "Hillbilly Wedding in June" are now on sale and they are reported to be "going like wild fire." The marathon wedding will be on Tuesday night, June third at Gentry's arena where several thousand people are expected to be on hand for the most colorful and publicized wedding in the history of the south.

The tickets are on sale at the Ervin Insurance Agency at 218 Trenton Street and the Wall Insurance Agency at 304 Wood Street, West Monroe.

Three couples, now locked in an election to determine which will receive several thousand dollars in prizes and an expensive honeymoon trip, will be married in a triple ceremony with "all the trimmings." Voting, now under way in West Monroe, will end May 22.

The "Hillbilly Wedding in June" is sponsored by the Ouachita Valley Jamboree with the cooperation of West Monroe merchants.

Hugh Taylor, chairman of an election committee in charge of the voting reported that voting was getting heavier as the deadline draws closer. In a joint announcement, Taylor and his co-chairman J. R. Morton said the job of counting the votes was getting so big that a new arrangement had been made for counting the ballots.

They called on all merchants with voting boxes in their stores to separate the votes into three categories to simplify the counting task as much as possible. The votes are counted every week and the counting committee worked until the early hours of the morning last week tabulating the votes.

"If the merchants with boxes

Sen. Sparks Meets With Reps. Wall, Faulk In Effort To Draft Ouachita Legislation

BY YVONNE BRETT

Senator James Sparks and Representatives Shady Wall and Gilbert Faulk have been holding meetings during the past weeks to discuss legislation which will be offered by the Kennon administration and also legislation which they will offer in the interest of Ouachita and Jackson parishes.

Senator Sparks represents Ouachita and Jackson parishes and Representatives Wall and Faulk are representatives of Ouachita.

A pledge was given by the legislators that they would not vote for any additional taxes in any form.

The meetings which the three legislators have been holding in recent weeks are the first ever to be held by any legislators from this parish. All three state that they will be better prepared to cope with the problems arising in the legislature, both state and locally, as a result of the meetings.

Sparks, Wall and Faulk have pledged 100 per cent cooperation for the establishment of a pharmaceutical school at Northeast Louisiana State College. "We give our word to the people who we represent and further to all of northeast Louisiana that we will work untiringly for the establishment of the school," they said.

Senator Sparks stated that he would introduce a bill in the Senate, after receiving word from Representatives Wall and Faulk that they would give their full support, to exempt school teacher's retirement pay from state income tax.

Further, the three men will support a law to take the red tape from the automobile law concerning ownership certificate of a vehicle.

One of the major bills which all three legislators will back is a bill to establish a permanent legislative bureau, composed of members from both the house and senate, which would study proposed legislation between sessions. "This bureau would be paid by the legislature and would consist of eight members from the house and eight from the senate. We feel that a bureau of this type would keep all legislators up to date on bills which will come up between sessions," the three legislators said.

Senator Sparks will also introduce a bill to create a more modern form of will. The bill would

Editorials and Comment

Judge Voelker Serves Well

The fourth judicial district of Louisiana, which includes Morehouse and Ouachita parishes, has been privileged since October, 1951, to have one of the most outstanding judges in the state serve on its bench.

This man, who is acclaimed by members of the Louisiana Bar Association as an authority in lawmaking, is Judge Frank Voelker of Lake Providence.

Judge Voelker, who is judge of the sixth congressional district composed of the parishes of East Carroll, Madison and Tensas, undertook part of the duties of the fourth district after the resignation of Judge Edward L. Gladney, who was elevated to the court of appeals. His period of service here ended May 2.

Judge Voelker has served with the tenderness, wisdom, foresight, humility and humanity possessed by only truly great men of his profession.

During his service here Judge Voelker has rendered many important decisions in both civil and criminal cases. He sat on the bench during the trial of Buck Evans, who was convicted by a 12-man jury of murder and sentenced to life imprisonment. During this widely publicised proceeding Judge Voelker extended to the defendant Evans every courtesy possible and gave to him every right extended in his behalf by law.

In Judge Voelker we have found the judge who will extend to every one the benefit of the doubt and who places the hand of justice on those who have violated the law in the fairest manner possible.

In Judge Voelker is the heart of a man who can see the failings of both the strong and the weak, and who after many years of serving his fellow man as an administer of justice can see not only the legal point but that of the human.

In this man we not only find the lawmaker and the judge; we find also the man who is interested in the welfare of youth. Judge Voelker is a member of the juvenile commission and has taken an active part in all cases concerning juveniles. In this respect he is largely responsible for the many forward steps made in the past toward rehabilitation of our youth.

Three Faiths May Approve

A method of teaching religion in schools in a way that will appeal to people of Jewish, Catholic and Protestant faiths is proposed by Dean Liston Pope in an article in the May issue of the American magazine.

Since the News-Star recently carried an editorial on this subject and since it aroused wide-spread interest, we think it is appropriate to use the American Magazine's comment. It follows:

"Religion can be stressed in public schools without stirring up the explosive dispute which now rages in many communities, according to Dr. Liston Pope, Dean of Yale University's Divinity School.

"Dr. Pope outlines a constructive solution in the May issue of The American Magazine for providing religious instruction which will satisfy the parents of every faith.

"Dr. Pope suggests introduction of specific courses on religion, such as Biblical literature, as part of the regular school program.

" 'I am confident that textbooks could be written by educators, in cooperation with Jewish, Catholic and Protestant scholars, that all three groups would find commendable,' the Yale educator says in his American Magazine article.

"Many of the regular courses, too, could well be given a spiritual emphasis now widely ignored, he says.

" 'A course in high school physics can simply teach basic formulas, or it can do that and also raise fundamental questions which will excite awe and respect for the ultimate realities of the universe.'

"Before publishing this article the editors of the American Magazine submitted the manuscript, for comment and criticism, to leaders of the three major faiths. All agreed that it is an eminently fair, unbiased and constructive presentation of a controversial subject.

"Another approach urged by the religious authority is to bring more spiritual and moral values into the training of teachers.

" 'Teachers in our public schools should be respectful too, and sympathetic of, all religions faiths,' Dr. Pope says. 'And they should be trained to teach about religion objectively and accurately.'

" 'A third broad move any community can make in introducing religion into the schools is to pave the way carefully, so that the program can be carried out harmoniously. To do this, the local Protestant, Catholic and Jewish leaders should come together and explore their common ground.'

"This idea of common exploration has been carried out successfully in England where leaders of all three religions have concurred on an "agreed syllabus" for religious instruction.

"In this country the Virginia State Board of Education has for years issued an official syllabus of Bible study for high school pupils; it was first outlined by an inter-faith committee.

"Dean Pope maintains that with this program schools can give America's children the moral strength they need to cope with the great spiritual crisis at home and abroad."

Moving Our Oil

An executive of an Oklahoma oil company recently made an address on the development of transportation by the petroleum industry. He told a story of progress which has resulted in an invaluable contribution to the national welfare. Oil has made and is making the most efficient and economical use of every form of transportation—the pipe line, the motor truck, the railroad tank car, the barge and the seagoing tanker. Thus our insatiable appetite for oil products of a thousand kinds is met, without delays, shortages, or inconvenience.

Very naturally, the oil industry is vitally concerned with transportation laws and regulations. On this crucial subject, he said, "We realize that something should be done to remove the onerous burden of excessive regulation of the railroads and some other common carriers. It is my view, as a student of transportation, that all that is needed in the way of Federal regulation today are provisions for fair, reasonable and nondiscriminatory rates, car service, and safety measures. . . . Under such enlightened and limited regulation common carrier service would prosper and expand and this country could be fortified with adequate and economic transportation to meet its ever-expanding needs in time of peace and in time of war."

This illustrates how the consumers of oil, like the consumers of almost everything else, have a compelling interest in sound regulatory policies. In an integrated economy such as ours, anything that affects one basic enterprise affects all others.

IN HOLLYWOOD

HOLLYWOOD, May 3—According to a news item in one of the Hollywood trade papers, a major studio has paid Peggy Hopkins Joyce, the one-time Follies beauty who made a career of marrying—and collecting from six husbands, the tidy little fee of $65,000 for screen rights to her biography, "Diamonds and Rhinestones." The tradepaper says, further, that Peggy's life story is going to be filmed as a very super, super production.

Aren't you thrilled by this winderful prospect?

It's a rare day, here in Hollywood, that we aren't privileged to read, or hear, some eloquent speech about the high ideals of the movie industry and its tremendous power as an educational and inspirational medium. Through our G-R-E-A-T - movies we're told, America, and the American way of life, are being sold to the benighted peoples over seas.

Personally, I always sucker for those pontifical orations. I get all het up about them and start expecting pictures of tremendous inspirational value — stories about men and women who, pursuing our American way of life, have accomplished great and noble things. I'm ready to overwork my typewriter in wild applause.

But I find it very disillusioning when I'm asked to settle for the life story of Peggy Hopkins Joyce. Personally, if compromise I must, I'd prefer the life story of Tommy Manville, since not only has he married oftener than Peggy, but, being the one who has paid, rather than the one who has collected, his career seems somewhat less commercial.

Somehow, I can't help nursing the conviction that if the studio czars were to look hard enough they might be able to find, somewhere in America, stories about people who have done more worthwhile though perhaps less profitable, things than those which make up the life story of Peggy Hopkins Joyce. For instance, there's the story of a gentleman named George Washington. That one would be fresh material too, for no studio has yet got around to filming it.

Idol Chatter: If Keenan Wynn ever loses his screen career, he'd make a magnificent motorcycle salesman . . . Add models I'd want to hire if I were a photographer specializing in glamour shots: MGM's new find, Elaine Stewart. . . . Appraise the gowns Hollywood glamour girls are sporting in the nightclubs this season, and you'll realize that part of our population, at least, have nothing to hide. . . Terse description of Doris Day: Girl who makes fire by rubbing two notes together. . . No Hollywoodite has more sincere friends, or more irreconcilable enemies, than Cecil B. DeMille. . . Silly notion: A love scene played between ultra-short Mickey Rooney and ultra-tall Alexis Smith. . . . No change in temperature more startling than the way Larry Parks freezes at sight of a reporter, and thaws on his departure.

It's not only the Hollywood humans who have versatile acting careers, but also many of the inanimate objects used in picture-making. For instance, there's a pirate ship you'll see in RKO's "Blackbeard, the Pirate." It was built (in sections, as such sets always are) about seven years ago for a picture entitled "The Spanish Main." In it's original form, it was a galleon. A couple of years later, leased to Paramount and moved to that studio's backlot tank, it was remodelled into a three-masted square-rigger for "Two Years Before The Mast." In 1949, it sailed (aboard a fleet of trucks) to the Columbia Studio ranch in San Fernando Valley, where it became a frigate and played an heroic role in "Captain Pirate." Now, for "Blackbeard," it's on "location" at the Pathe Studios in Culver City, costumed, this time, as a two - masted schooner. Not many actors can point to a career showing more versatility.

Anne Baxter, in private life Mrs. John Hodiak, is universally, and justly, I think, regarded as one of Hollywood's most devoted wives. And, precisely, because she is so regarded, I find ominous implications in one of the scenes for her current picture, "My Wife's Best Friend." In that scene, which is part of a dream sequence, Anne imagines herself an oriental queen with a host of slaves grovelling at her jewel-bedecked feet. So far, so good—but beyond that point, not so good, at least from the masculine standpoint. Just there, Anne had an inspiration and offered it to the director. She suggested that to make the dream more authentic, MacDonald Carey, who plays her husband in the picture, should be seen as one of the slaves, and that she should use him as a doormat!

Over a long period of years, Rudy Vallee has taken a lot of kidding about his high regard for small change. I wonder how many of the kidders envy him the $850 a week he's now drawing from the annuities his thrift made possible?

Local Contractors Get Winnsboro Job

Cagle and Hazel, local contractors, were awarded a contract for the construction of a cotton classing laboratory to be located in Winnsboro. The contract was awarded Saturday morning and calls for a building costing approximately $50,000.

Being built by J. W. McLemore, the building will be leased to the United States Department of Agriculture for the cotton station.

Our Children

CAMP

Going to spend a summer vacation in camp is one of the highlights of childhood and one that should heighten the zest for living of every child. Someday the good fathers and mothers who have authority in public affairs will see the wisdom of establishing camps in the country as annexes to the public schools.

The children who live in the open country where they know the freedom of field and wood and stream can spend a time in camp with profit. The association with children of other backgrounds, other ways, other standards, is helpful in extending their viewpoint and enabling them to understand better the attitudes of the city and town children. This might bear fruit in years to come.

Certainly the city and town children need the experiences the country offers them. Just to be able to look at a skyful of stars, just to see the moon rise over the hills, just to look up at a pine tree that rides like a church spire toward the sky is something to lift a child's heart and forever after help him to draw a long free breath of spiritual strength. He will not be able to put his feeling into words. It goes too deep. But he will, in time, put it into action.

Once upon a time a little boy who lived in a tenement house in a crowded and dirty city was sent along with ten others to a camp for two weeks in August. He had never in all his seven years seen a tree, walked on grass or climbed a hill. He had never heard a whippoorwill, nor an owl talk in the night. He was terrorized and begged to be taken home but the teacher in charge held on to him, kept him close by her side and taught him to see and feel the beauty that lay about him, to know the bird calls, to love the trees and their shadows, love the brook and the lake and the night sky.

The two weeks were up and the child was to go home but the teacher asked to keep him for the season. "He's expanding so. He's getting something I can't just put my finger on but it's important."

"I'll stay with you if you just let me go home and tell my mother I like it here so she won't cry," said the small camper. So stay he did.

That one summer (he went to work the next and kept on working until he was a grown-up man) did, as the teacher felt, something very important for that boy. The gang called in vain, the dark tenement and the dirty street lost all power to depress him. He had within him a vision of freedom and beauty and well being that supported him through the hard years ahead until he emerged as leader, a friend to all children who were strangers to the gifts of old Mother Nature. What about it, you who could help?

Learning to read and to understand what is read is important to every school child if he is to progress in any subject. How parents can give their child this help is outlined in Dr. Patri's leaflet P-31, "Poor Readers." To obtain a copy, send 10 cents in coin to him, care of this paper, P. O. ONE TRIBE SLIGHTED

Eleven Indian tribes once lived and hunted in Nebraska and ten of them are remembered in place names: Ogallala, Brule, Sioux, Pawnee, Arapahoe, Otoe, Ponca, Winnebago, Omaha, and Santee. Only the Iowa tribe was slighted.

Louisiana--Its Community Life

By Ethel McIntyre

COMMUNITY HARMONY

Where did the idea originate that the winning candidate of a political race, quickly loses interest in the voting public, as soon as election day has passed and he realizes he has gained the prized goal so many candidates worked tirelessly to attain? Who, among us, has said that "neighborly good-fellowship is a lost art; passed into oblivion, dead, buried and the obituary read? At a Negro minstrel, given by the Central High School of Franklin parish, directed by one of the teachers of the school, community cooperation was demonstrated in the same friendly loyalty the south has been noted for in past years. The sheriff and several businessmen of Winnsboro, two tap dancers of Delhi in Richland parish, a young lady singer from the college at Ruston and several other singers from nearby towns joined the group of students and faculty members, freely contributing their time and efforts to help make the production a howling success. The sheriff, with his face as black as "Jim Crow," his guitar dangling from a cord thrown carelessly across his shoulders, cracked jokes, sang old ballads while he thrummed on the guitar and entered into the spirit of the play with a gusto that gave an added zest to the production. With four years stretching before him in the sheriff's office to which he has so recently been re-elected to fill, he could hardly be accused of seeking vots in his friendly act of helpfulness. After the program was finished, he stood on the stage and chatted with his friends of the community. Later he mingled with the crowd, shaking hands alike with visitors from an adjoining parish and citizens of his own district. The result of an election is difficult indeed to predict still it is my guess that this night will be remembered in his favor, four years from now if he should again seek re-election to the office of sheriff in his parish.

Deep appreciation was shown to the businessmen's quartet of Winnsboro who sang several songs to the delight of the audience, and also to the young girl dancers and the singers from Ruston and other neighboring towns. Not forgotten were the advertisements, on the programs issued to every member of the audienc, subscribed to by the businessmen of Delhi, Crowville and Winnsboro. The funds received from the program were to be used for the benefit of the basketball club at Central High. Visiting members of the audience from other communities, found that the program was well worth the nominal entrance fee charged.

Every day we hear some citizen, who has lost faith in mankind bitterly remark that "Brotherly love and neighborliness is a thing of the past," but when we are privileged to witness the scenes mentioned above where a sheriff and business men ride miles to lend their talents to the cast of a play in a country high school; where an adjoining parish extends a helping hand to their neighbor across the parish border line, we know that not only is brotherly love and neighborliness not dead, but that it lives and breathes and grows, adding another page to the history of traditions we, as a nation, hold aloft for the world to read.

CITY OF MONROE SCHOOLS EXPAND

Grow Numerically And More Buildings Being Added

The Monroe city schools continue to grow at a very substantial rate, which now shows an increase of 50.1 per cent over the enrollment at the end of the first month of school of the session of 1948-49. The number of additional pupils is 1674 as shown by the enrollments of the schools at the end of the 7th month of this session as compiled and released by Miss Eleona Brinsmade, visiting teacher of the city schools.

All the schools have shown increases except Newtown School where lack of space made necessary the transfer to Monroe Colored High School of all pupils above the third grade.

Registrations by schools show Barkdull Faulk School with 596, a gain of 135; Central Grammar School has enrolled 435, a gain of 159 pupils; Georgia Tucker School has enrolled 607, a gain of 157; Lida Benton 354, a gain of 83; Neville High School 844, a gain of 335; Newtown School an enrollment of 161 in the first three grades, a loss of 98 but a gain in the first three grades; Monroe Colored High School, 1587, a gain of 703; and Sherrouse School 443, a gain of 200; a grand total of all gains being 1674.

Four new schools and the addition to Sherrouse School will open in September to relieve crowded conditions generally. These schools are the elementary schools on Plum street, Orange street, and Lexington avenue, and the modern, comprehensive high school on Renwick street, plus the major addition to the Sherrouse School.

JET TRAVEL AGE IS USHERED IN

JOHANNESBURG, South Africa, May 3 (AP) — The British jetliner Comet streaked over the middle of the world with a pay load to a schedule-shaving landing in Johannesburg today.

The 6,724 - mile flight brought South Africa less than 24 hours from London and ushered in the jet age of commercial air travel.

Thousands of spectators ringed Palmietfrontein Airport as the four-engined De Havilland Craft, which whistled away from the misty spring weather of London yesterday at 2 p. m. Greenwich time (9 a. m. EST), and down in the South African autumn here at 1:33 p. m. (8:33 a. m. EST).

The official landing time was clocked five minutes later, when chocks were fitted beneath the Comet's wheels, still two minutes ahead of the scheduled landing time of 1:40 p. m.

Elapsed time for the flight — including stops in Rome, Italy; Beirut, Lebanon; Khartoum, Sudan; Entebee Uganda; and Livingstone, Rhodesia — was 23 hours 38 minutes. That's about two-thirds of the time consumed by regular commercial aircraft for the journey from London to this city. Much of the flight was made more than seven miles up.

The British Overseas Airways Corporation, the operators, said the flying time was 17 hours 16 minutes.

"We don't try to break records," a BOAC spokesman said, "We try to fly on schedule."

In fact the Comet — which hit 525 miles an hour betewen Rome and Lebanon — was loafing in the stretch run.

The pilot, Capt. R. C. Alabaster, said the Comet arrived at Livingstone ahead of time, left late and made wide, sweeping turns en route to Johannesburg to kill time.

The big ship, which bore 36 paying passengers, 30 bags of mail and six crewmen from London, averaged 390 miles on the flight that touched three continents, Europe, Asia and Africa.

"The flight was trouble free and the passengers were most enthusiastic," Alabaster said.

The BOAC log (all based on time) of chocking an unchocking the wheels showed that the Comet made the following speeds:

London-Rome 930 miles in two hours, 46 minutes.

Rome - Beirut 1,392 miles in 3 hours, 20 minutes.

Beirut - Khartoum 1,350 miles in 3 hours, 28 minutes.

Khartoum - Entebee 1,090 miles in 2 hours 13 minutes.

The Comet's passengers paid the regular fare of 175 pounds ($490) for one way and 315 pounds ($882) for roundtrip.

One passenger, Miss Averil Coleridge - Taylor, composed a jet-age melody about the trip. "Comet prelude." She is the daughter of the late Samuel Coleridge - Taylor, famed British composer.

"I have traveled a lot by air," she said, "but never experienced anything like this fatigue - free aircraft. It's marvelous."

BOAC officials said the flight shows Britain has at least a four-year lead in commercial jet service over the United States and other nations.

LOUISIANA STATE POLICE RECORD 12 ARREST

Three of the 12 arrests made by members of Troop F of the Louisiana state police were for operating a vehicle while under the influence of intoxicating liquors. Four other arrests were for reckless driving, while one other, involving a 17 - year - old white youth, was for auto theft and being absent without leave from a military post.

Those charged with operating a vehicle while under the influence of intoxicating liquors were: Abraham Soloman, 32, Route 4, Winnsboro; William T. Field, Jr., 43, 1501 South Third street, Monroe, and Wilburn Ray Malone, 37, Box 93, Farmerville.

Harvey E. Shields, 45, 1430 Alma street, Shreveport, was charged with reckless driving, while two others, Tony Furrino and Ernest E. Anderson, were arrested for reckless driving and causing property damage. State police listed Ruffano as 51, and living at 2814 Dick Taylor street, Monroe, and Anderson 21, Box 908, Bastrop.

Charged with reckless driving and causing an accident was Leo W. Hunter, 30, Farmerville.

CHURCHES

Parkview Baptist Church Has Ambitious Program For Youth

From a little group of enthusiastic Baptists residing on the north side, far from downtown First Baptist Church, there was established the present Parkview Baptist Church with first meetings held in the auditorium of the Georgia Tucker School. It was there that the first meeting was held July 21, 1946. Two years later, in 1948, the present building at 1001 Forsythe avenue was constructed in part and meetings were held there.

A highly comprehensive master plan was approved, architects being Smith & Padgett. This was so that there would be no construction wasted, no need to tear down or demolish any part. Four separate units are required to carry out the entire plan of this substantial brick edifice.

Up to the present, two units are already constructed at a cost of approximately $100,000 and when the other units are erected, which call for a beautiful sanctuary, there will have been expended more than $300,000.

Right now the building is being equipped with a complete air conditioning system and also, and really more important, a 40 by 50 foot room at the rear as the youth recreation center. Here banquets will be served and young people's parties as well as games are to be conducted in such manner as to keep all occupied and entertained.

Rev. H. L. Sampson, the virile, enthusiastic and deeply consecrated pastor and efficient leader of the church, is more interested in providing all round facilities for youth than in all else. He sees that the youth of today will be leaders of tomorrow, which means that the way they are brought up, the way the twig is bent, will indicate the tree that will result, in figurative language.

"I want to make this church outstanding in its broad influence on youth," Reverend Sampson declared to a News-Star — World reporter the past week. Mrs. A. L. New, a well trained youth leader, graduate of Louisiana College and of the Baptist Seminary in New Orleans, is highly capable director for youth. She heads this department at Parkview.

Reverend Sampson proposes that services at his church will be quite unique. Starting May 11, there will be two morning worship services held. One at 8:40 a. m. and one at 10:50 a.m. and youth will figure largely in the services. Each will be different as to sermons and to hymns.

The two services are conducted as a feeder for the large sanctuary when erected. If members come to one of the two preaching services now it will result so that there should be a large attendance when the new sanctuary is erected, states the pastor, who greatly dislikes unfilled pews in a church.

After each night service, there will be a youth fellowship period held in the church recreation rooms in which juniors and intermediates will participate, which is another new idea of the progressive pastor.

The night service at this church is broadcast every Sunday over KLIC. No other church here has such a night broadcast.

There are 364 enrolled in Sunday School and the church has 375 members.

"We are the farthest north of any church in the city today and we are a growing church. We want to be the really big and progressive church of our section of the city. There will in time be other churches, other denominations around us, but we are glad to have them come. However, we shall try to be the first and biggest church numerically and in performance in the far north section of Monroe. We thank all of those who have aided us thus far. We want to continue our good work which is all done to the glory of God and His cause," the pastor asserted.

FIRST CHURCH OF CHRIST, SCIENTIST
224 Auburn Ave.

"Everlasting Punishment" is the subject of the lesson-sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, Sunday, May 4, 1952.

The Golden Text is: "Know ye not, that to whom ye yield yourselves servants to obey, his servants ye are to whom ye obey; whether of sin unto death, or of obedience unto righteousness" (Rom. 6:16)?

Among the citations which comprise the lesson-sermon is the following from the Bible: "The son shall not bear the iniquity of the father, neither shall the father bear the iniquity of the son" (Ezek. 18:20).

The lesson-sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "A selfish and limited mind may be unjust, but the unlimited and divine Mind is the immortal law of justice as well as of mercy" (p. 36).

Little Theatre Curtain Call

"Kiss and Tell" little Theatre's fifth and final production of the season, got back into production this last week with the return of Director Fontelieu and his bride —had been mighty quiet out at the little playhouse for ten days or more, but that's not the story any longer, no, not with fifteen people in the cast.

Since "Kiss and Tell' is primarily a story of families and family life, let's see just who it is that makes up each of the different groups of this riotous comedy, scheduled for a May 28th opening. The Archer family, consists of Mr. and Mrs. Archer, played by Paul Goldman and Beth Breese; their daughter Corliss is Kara Lee Miller. Lt. Lenny, their son is K. D. Hayes, Jr. Mr. Archer's brother, a commander in the navy, is Bert Root. And although Louise, the Archer maid, is not really family, she thinks of herself as ruler of the house. Val Nichols is doing the honors there.

Mr. and Mrs. Franklin, neighbors and good friends of the Archers, are Bid Causey and Skipper Perkins. Dexter, their over-eager son, is being done by Joe Milner.

The Pringles, with whom the Archers are having a mild neighborhood feud, are Dick Guelzow and Lillian Harris. Their daughter, Mildred, who is Corliss' best friend, is Jean Milner. (Jean and Joe Milner make the first brother and sister team to grace our boards.) And Raymond, the Pringle's son, is Allen Foster.

Charles Swain and Paul Voney round out the cast of fifteen as the young soldier who turns Corliss' head and the hilarious housepainter. Oh yes, we've forgotten to mention Booger, Corliss' dog, who has fun on stage with everyone else.

And I hear tell that there is a scene where Corliss and her soldier friend play ping pong. Where are all these people, dogs and ping pong tables going to fit on Little Theatre stage. Well, guess we'll leave that little headache up to our director. He hasn't been stumped yet. Anyway, it sounds like fun, and I understand that the rehearsals are open to Little Theaterites all this coming week. Let's go out and have a peek.

RANDOM NOTES: In the cinematic world of sound and film, the show folks of celluloid refer to stage shows as flesh shows—Our good friend, Paramount Theatre Manager Melvin Greenblatt is mighty busy these days with a new kind of flesh show for Monroe and Northeast Louisiana— as president of the newly organized Kennel Club Class Sanctioned Match to be held Sunday afternoon, May 25th. The show will be held at 1 p. m. in the exhibit bldg. of the Ouachita Parish Fairgrounds — owners and breeders of pure bred dogs are urged to enter their dog, because this is the first dog show ever to be staged in Monroe, and the success of this show will determine whether Monroe will get on the Southern circuit. Monroe is the only city of its size in the Southern circuit that does not have these privileges for its many dog owners and breeders. Contact Mrs. Bert Heinberg, secretary to the Kennel Club, telephone 3-6878, for further information.

WOMAN WINS WAR BOND

Mrs. Hernandez Guesses Closest To No. Of Miles On Kruising Kaiser

Mrs. Felix Hernandez, 304 Montgomery, West Monroe, was awarded a $50 war bond today for guessing closest to the number of miles which the Kruising Kaiser made while touring the Twin Cities.

Robert Butz, assistant publisher of the Monroe News-Star—World, unveiled the mileage Wednesday afternoon and it was disclosed as 512.9 miles. Mrs. Hernandez had guessed 513 miles.

The Kaiser, owned by Griffin - Loftin, was driven by Neville Tigerettes, Ouachita Lionettes and St. Matthews Matthuettes. Every hour these young ladies chose the safest and most courteous driver and awarded two free tickets to see "Steel Town," currently showing at The Paramount.

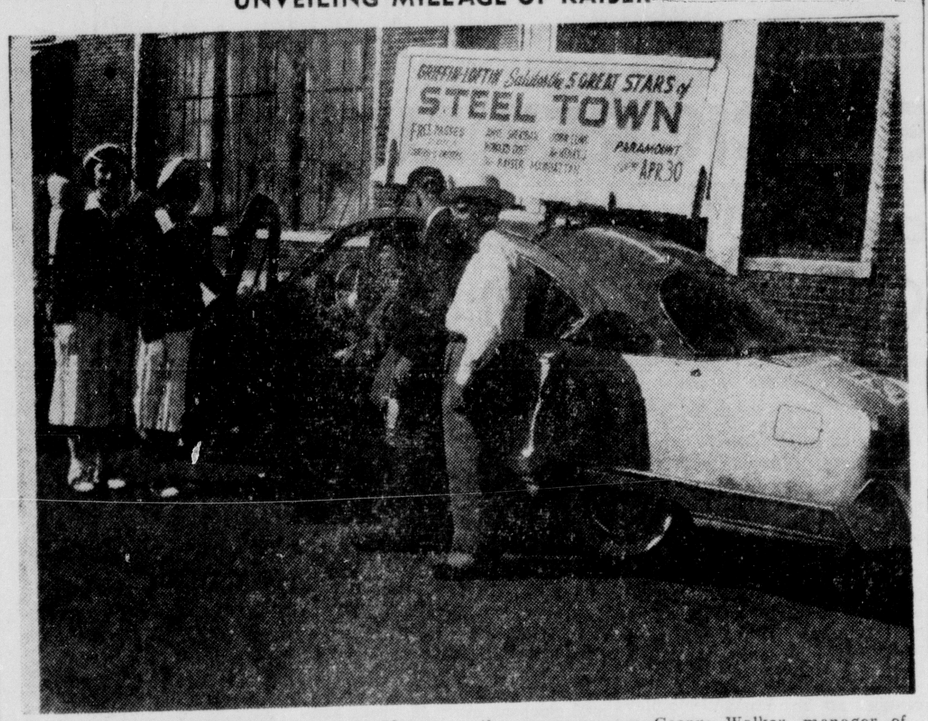

At the beginning of the tour the speedometer of the Kaiser was sealed by Mayor John E. Coon and Police Chief M. L. Peters who were invited to make the first guesses on accumulated mileage for the project.

VARIED DOGWOODS

The dogwoods comprise 40 different kinds of plants, chiefly trees and shrubs. They are distributed widely in temperate regions, and some of them yield a very hard and valuable wood. Fifteen species have been identified in North America.

If you're planning a home wedding reception, keep the food elegant and simple and it will be the least amount of work. Instead of several kinds of sandwiches, serve only chicken and almond open-faced one. Chop the chicken, celery and almonds finely and blend together with mayonnaise. Season to taste and spread on fancy shapes of bread.

UNVEILING MILEAGE OF KAISER

Robert Butz, assistant publisher of the Monroe News-Star—World is shown above unveiling the mileage of the Kruising Kaiser made while the vehicle toured the Twin Cities. The mileage was disclosed as 512.9 miles. Mrs. Felix Hernandez, West Monroe, guessed the mileage at 513 miles and was given a $50 war bond. Shown witnessing the ceremony are George Walker, manager of Griffin - Loftin, and Johnny Sherrouse, distributor of Sinclar products. Two young ladies, who drove the car which advertised the movie Steel Town, now showing at the Paramount, are also shown in the picture. (Staff Photo by Greg Hare.)

Mincing Nothing, He's A Decider

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of Commerce Sawyer, nominal boss of the government - seized but strikebound steel industry, had just returned to his paneled office from a critical conference with President Truman.

He ordered a corned beef sandwich and custard pie for lunch, before facing cameras, television floodlights and some 30 reporters at a news conference.

As he labored over a statement, this call came from his secretary:

"Mr. Sawyer, Mrs. Moses (the department cafeteria manager) thinks you ought to have hot mince pie instead of the custard pie."

"Okay," said Sawyer, "I'll have the hot mince pie." Then he exploded to an aide:

"The decisions, decisions, decisions we have to make around here!"

Teflis Grotto To Hold Rites

The Teflis Grotto will hold its spring ceremonial on Saturday, May 10, it was announced late Saturday. Plans for the ceremonial were completed at a regular business meeting held Friday night.

The prophets will assemble at the Masonic Temple at 2 p.m. Initiation of candidates will be completed by 6 p.m. and at 7 a chicken barbecue will be held at the home of Prophet and Mrs. George A. Bennett on the banks of Bayou DeSiard. All members of the Grotto and their wives are invited to attend. Music and entertainment will be furnished.

William A. Brandt of Bosco will be Monarch and requesting all old and new members to be present on Saturday.

FARM AND LIVESTOCK REVIEW

George Franklin Adopts Diversified Farming In Place Of One-Crop Method

Within the past five years, George Franklin and his son, George, Jr., owners and operators of an 18,000 acre farm at Holly Ridge, have veered away from the one-crop system and adopted diversified farming.

Franklin, a former parish director of the Delta Council, has been in ill health for the past several months and his son is carrying out the program which he has outlined.

George, Jr., president of the Richland parish Cattleman's Assn., reported that the farm predominated in cotton operations until five years ago. At the present time 6,400 acres are under cultivation and of this 2400 acres has been planted in cotton.

Experimental work with hogs is being carried out on the Franklin farm. "Our pigs are three-way crosses and we have about 450." George said. "Among this number are some Yorkshires imported from Canada. They have been grazing an oats, clover and singletary peas since they were weaned."

"We started with Duroc sows, bred them to an O. I. C. boar, crossed them back to Hampshire and bred back to Duroc again."

The pigs are currently feeding on ground maize and supplement and will finish up on corn and beans. George reported that he is following the McClain county system of sanitation with beneficial results. "All the land that they are grazing will be broken," he said.

The pigs are vaccinated with Rovac. This year an average of 7.6 pigs were weaned per sow. Range houses for the pigs are kept in excellent condition.

"We bought seven gilts and a boar from L. S. U. for foundation stock," George said.

He emphasized the fact that each hog house has two pastures, one for summer and one for fall.

"We are trying to kill the worm cycles by breaking the ground up and letting it lay fallow," he said.

"We fought cutworms with Toxiphene. They seem to thrive in cold weather and have been so injurious that some people have given up cover crops because of them."

George reported that the sows are placed in stalls a week before farrow and are bathed, scrubbed and disinfected in an effort to safeguard against insect eggs. "We then earmark and tattoo the pigs in order to follow their growth process," he said. Hygienic precautions are also brought into play to insure against pig loss by lungworms.

Cows in the farm pastures are grazing on the Louisiana selection of Dallas grass. "We are crossing our white face cattle with a good Brahma bull and then breeding it to a shorthorn," George said.

300 head of cattle are being worked on a three-way cross. George said that they are being selected for depth of back, milk production, and straight backs.

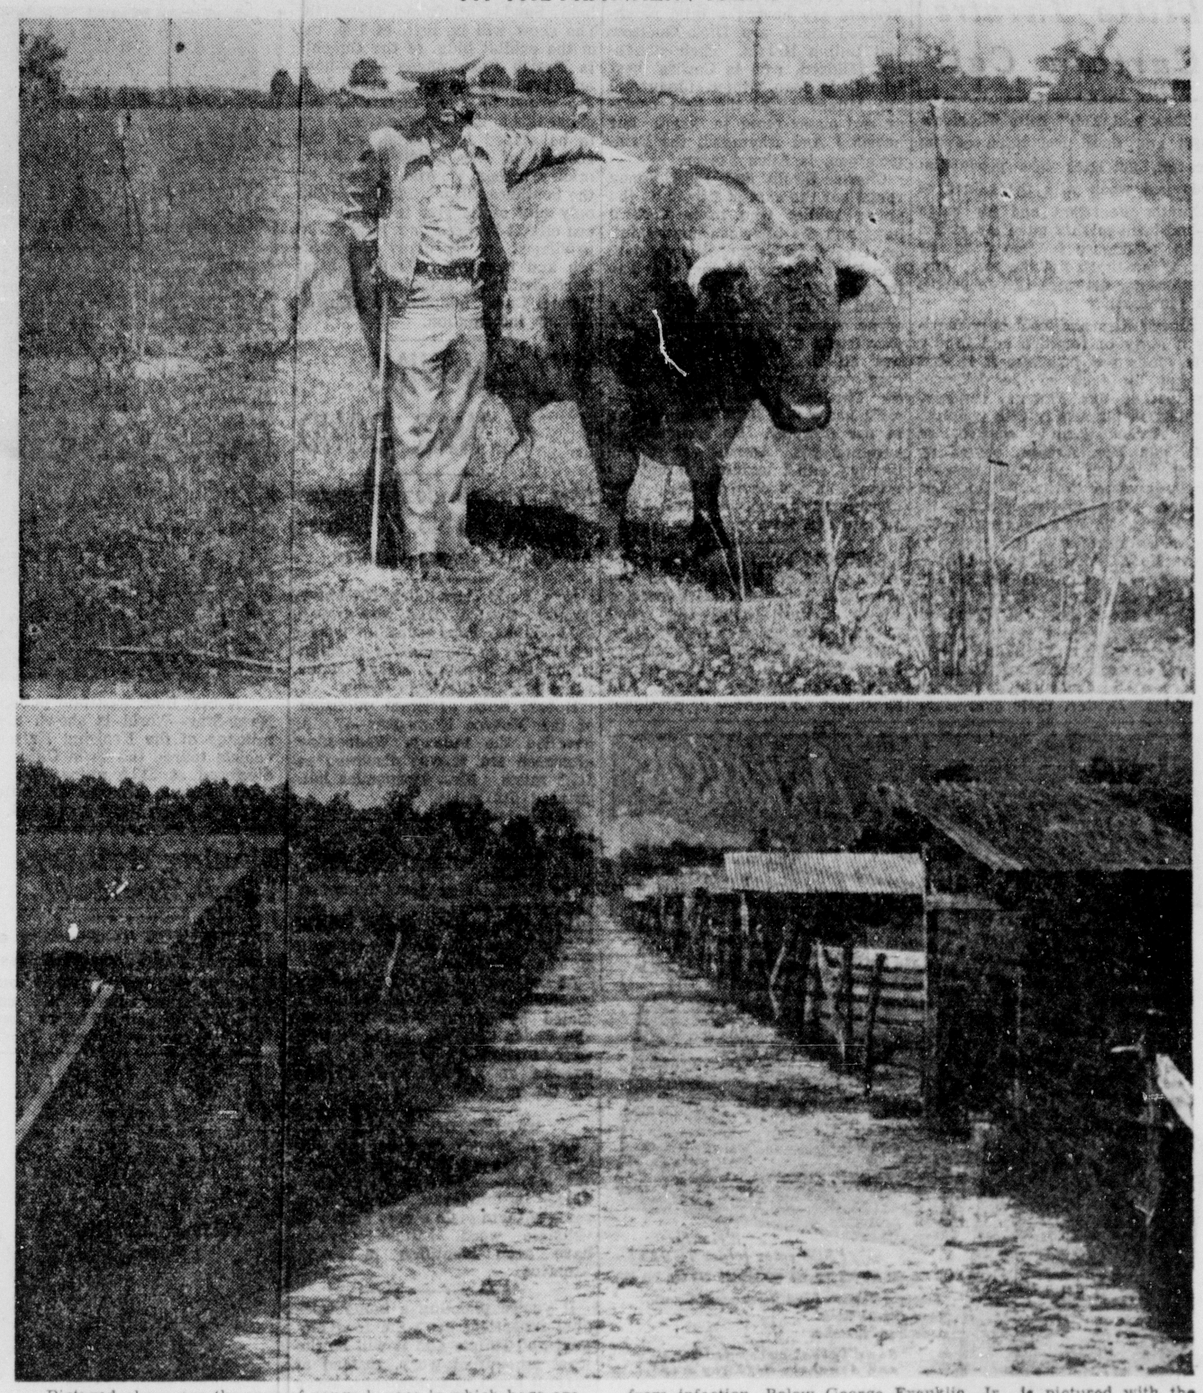

Corn on the Franklin farm was planted by March 31.

"We tried to plant one-third of the hogging off ground in Missouri 313 corn," George said "A mixture of S-100 and Ogden soy beans was also planted. Fertilizer under the corn was 300 pounds of 312-12 and 100 pounds of nitrogen."

In addition, they are raising 5,000 chickens every 10 weeks and a large number of turkeys.

"We would like to be grain producers," George said. "One of our goals lies in the desire to mix our own feeds and use our own products."

AT THE FRANKLIN FARM

DEMONSTRATION WORK LAUDED BY WOMEN

Eleven women from Drew community recently emphasized the importance of home demonstration club work in Ouachita parish in letters to home demonstration agent Euna Spielman.

I like home demonstration club work because it has helped me to have a more modern home, to conserve food and to sew and to dress as well as my city neighbor. It has helped we people who live in the country to a better life in many, many ways. Mrs. G. A. Strozier.

The things I enjoy most in the home demonstration club work are the good demonstrations given by the trained leaders. I also enjoy our recreation period and delicious refreshments that our hostesses serve. It would be worthwhile to belong to a home demonstration club for only the social contacts one gets. Mrs. J. M. Kent

The demonstrations given by the agent and the leader give timely information on so many of our home making problems. You learn something at each meeting. Mrs. Byron Henry.

Home demonstration work enlightens us on our homemaking job. We learn short cuts in doing our jobs, this gives us more free time for our children, and social life. Mrs. P. M. Donald, president.

I like being the nutrition leader of our club because I get new ideas on foods and ways to prepare them. Mrs. Albert Frost.

Things I like about home demonstration club meetings is the fellowship of ladies in my community, the information received on how to make my home a better place in which to live, and how I can improve my duties as a housewife. The recreation and singing offered in the meeting make a bright spot in my month. Mrs. O. D. Hollingsworth.

I like the home demonstration club because it has been lots of help to me in my home. I have been a member of the Drew Club for 26 years and have enjoyed the demonstrations as well as the social activities. Mrs. W. F. Bourland.

The club meetings and working with the people in the club, I think are great helps to our community. Mrs. W. O. Northcut.

The new and different ideas we get through our club is what I like. It enables us to have better homes and serve better meals. Mrs. Raymond Agin.

Home demonstration work gives us a better chance to know and work with our neighbors. The many things we get information on keeps us well informed on how to live, dress and have a happier home. Mrs. R. O. Moss.

I like home demonstration club work because of the fellowship we enjoy with other homemakers. Mrs. J. T. Halley.

Pine Sawfly Leaves Ark. To Threaten La. Woodland

An invasion of the pine - needle-chewing sawfly into Louisiana from Arkansas has caused more than $300,000 worth of damage to pine trees of the state this year, according to State Forester James E. Mixon of the Louisiana Forestry Commission. His agency has just completed a ground and air survey in cooperation with timber industries of North Louisiana, U. S. Forest Service and forestry students of Louisiana Polytechnic Institute. District Forester H. C. Cobb of the Commission headed the survey.

The sawfly has damaged an estimated 165,000 acres of pine over Natchitoches, Rapides, LaSalle, Grant, Winn, Caldwell, Union, Morehouse, Red River, and Lincoln parishes, and is predicted to do much more damage next year. Until now, sawfly infestation was limited to the parishes of Winn, Caldwell and LaSalle.

Mixon warned timber owners that fire will not rid their trees of this insect, that spraying is the only method of control. He said that if the damage becomes increasingly great, a cooperative system of spraying will be devised and that probably the federal government will be contacted for some aid on the project. It would be the first time that large - scale spraying for insects has been necessary in Louisian, he said.

The sawfly, Mixon explained, is an insect which, in the pupae stage, lives on the needles of loblolly and some shortleaf pines but does not attack longleaf or slash. Some trees have been found completely defoliated by the insect, which does not kill the tree but stunts its growth. Such damage, however, leaves the tree susceptible to further attack by drouth and other insects, it was pointed out.

"In fact, with the invasion of such an insect as the sawfly, we must be especially on guard against drouth and the Ips beetle, which is known to be in Texas right now", Mixon said. "If all three hit us at once, the damage would be tremendous and would probably spread throughout the state's loblolly and shortleaf belt."

The only available cost estimates on spraying for the sawfly stem from limited spraying done by the Urania Lumber Company per acre, but this should be reduced greatly im spraying is on over a large area on a cooperative project, Mixon said. The state forester expressed his appreciation to all who participated in the survey especially B. A. Ryan of International Paper Company and Glen F. Tannehill of Urania Lumber Company.

Roamin' In The Rural

Euna D. Spielman
Home Demonstration Agent

The vegetable gardens are at a high peak in the rural area of Ouachita Parish. While in the Eureka community this week the agent visited Mrs. Blanche Parker, garden leader, of the Eureka Home Demonstration Club and the past year a first place winner in the Pantry contest. There was not a sprig of grass nor a weed to be seen. George, Blanche's husband helps keep these under control.

In this garden I found plenty of English peas, the Early Alaska which they were using now and the Creoles which would soon be ready. Blanche will have plenty of Creoles to fill her pantry budget needs. Other vegetables growing in the Parker garden were: tomatoes, mustard, turnips, cabbage, lettuce, snap and lima beans, okra, onions, shallots, radishes, sweet corn, cucumbers and irish potatoes. Well that is nearly all the varieties, isn't it?

Vegetables are not all found in Eureka. Mrs. Malone is boasting about her chickens. She has 100 per cent of the Hampshire Reds, she started with and although they were only six weeks old they were large enough to broil.

Eureka Club members prove we can have plenty of good food for the family. This club also staged a community National Home Demonstration Celebration on April 29th to show how proud they are of their club.

You should see how English peas can be grown in the Liberty Community by Mrs. Richardson, another garden leader. Mrs. Richardson has 4 varieties of peas. The Early Alaska, the Little Marvel, Creole and the Salad Pea. The hull of the Salad Pea is cooked like a snap bean and is delicious. This is a vegetable we can have earlier, because the cold does not kill it.

Broiler week—May 5—10th has been declared. During Broiler week let's cooperate and help these producers through this low price season. The broiler industry in Ouachita depends on full cooperation of all of us next week. Watch for "New Magic" with chicken next week.

Next week we'll roam down Logtown way.

Jersey Cattle Classifier Named In La.

LAFAYETTE, La., May 4 — Dr. Clyde L. Rougeau, professor of dairying and head of the department of animal industry at Southwestern Louisiana Institute, has been appointed an official classifier of Jersey cattle by the American Jersey Cattle Club.

The Southwestern professor is one of only 17 such classifiers in the nation and the only one in the deep South. Only Louisianian to have held the distinction was the late C. H. Staples of Louisiana State University.

The appointment was made on the basis of knowledge and ability to evaluate Jersey cattle and to compare them with the ideal of the breed, cattlemen informed.

Rougeau, believed to be the youngest man ever appointed a classifier by the club, is a graduate of Southwestern, Texas A. and M. college, and the University of Minnesota. He has been on the SLI faculty since 1937.

The classifier has been a leader in cattle and agriculture in Louisiana and is now superintendent of the livestock shows of the South Fair Association. He has been judge and official at many of the top stock shows in the nation.

1040 Attend 4-H Program

Yesterday's annual 4-H club achievement day at Crosley grammar School registered 1040 members from 26 clubs in Ouachita parish.

Millsaps Grammar school placed highest in the 50 members and over group and received the Monroe Kiwanis award. The Ouachita Parish High school senior club won the loving cup while in the junior division, Drew Grammar school was presented the award.

L. L. Price, chairman of the agriculture committee of the Monroe Kiwanis club and A. J. "Dusty" Rhodes, chairman of the agriculture committee, of the West Monroe Kiwanis, presented the schools with their awards.

Individual winners will be announced later.

BASIL DOLES GIVES ADVICE ON CLOVER HARVEST

With regard to the time of cutting white clover, Doles said that it should be cut when two full sets of blooms have been made and when 75 per cent of the seed in the second set of blooms is in the dough stage. He reported that it is not necessary to wait for all seed to mature." At this stage about three-fourths of the mature seed will shell out when rubbed in the hands," Doles said

For harvesting, he reported that any working machine in good condition can be used. "The blade must be sharp and must cut cleanly without dragging over the plants," Doles said. "Do not cut when plants are wet with dew or rain and be sure that the cut plants are cured out when threshed."

On combining, Doles said that when the clover growth is heavy best results are obtained by threshing directly from the swath. He added that windrowing will be necessary if a rain catches the partially cured plants in the swath and cements them to the ground.

In cutting crimson clover, Doles said: "Cut when heads are ripe enough for the seed to shatter when plants are held in one hand and struck sharply against the other. Seed heads must be perfectly dry when this is done, otherwise the seed won't shatter."

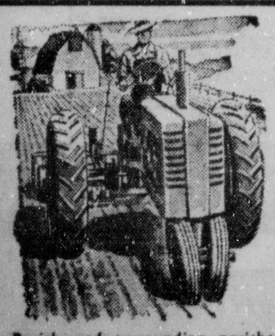

FARM MIGRATION

Forty years ago 34 per cent of the country's people were on farms, compared to only 16 per cent at the last census. Farm population was highest in history in 1916 numbering 32½ million. Then wars and business conditions encouraged migration from farms, except in depression years. During World War I and the prosperous twenties, the number of farm folks declined steadily to 29½ million in 1930. The depression sent people back to the farm for a few years, bringing the count to 31.2 million by 1933. Then the downward trend began again, first gradually, then rapidly as World War II came on. By 1951 there were 6 million fewer farm people than in 1940.

North Carolina's Agricultural Experiment Station points out that corn yields in the Southeastern States could be increased 42 per cent by adding 30 pounds of nitrogen per acre.

tion would create danger of a new work stoppage.

The steel mills today were only beginning to get back into operation after a three-day strike which started Tuesday after Federal District Judge David A. Pine ruled that Truman's seizure of the mills was illegal. Murray ordered the strike ended after the President made a personal appeal to him Thursday night.

The union had joined in the government's appeal to the Supreme Court for a free hand in regard to wages and working conditions. The union said that if seizure continued and the government's hands were tied, the union in effect would have no employer to bargain with and would be left "holding the bag."

In reply, the companies said they were willing to bargain at any time.

The Supreme Court — which only in vitally urgent cases announces any action on any day but Mondays — was thus left with the constitutional issue: Did Truman exceed his powers when he seized the industry on April 8 to avert a strike?

The strike has idled upward of 90,000 workers, and posed a threat to approximately one-third of the country's average output of three million barrels of gasoline a day. A government estimate last week said the reserve supply was sufficient for 45 days at normal consumption.

Hardest hit has been the production of high-octane aviation gasoline. The U. S. Air Force curtailed training flights in order to conserve its limited supply. Training command headquarters at Scott Air Force base said the order affects about 12,000 pilots at 40 stateside bases.

In most areas filling stations reported a thriving business as motorists attempted to keep tanks filled in anticipation of a shortage.

A large freshly baked chocolate cupcake makes a good dessert, if you serve it this way. Cut a cone-shaped section from the top of each cake. Fill the hole with whipped cream and finely chopped walnuts and replace the top, pointed side up. A few slices of canned cling peaches arranged on a plate around the bottom of each cake will add even more to its good looks and wonderful taste.

the same type and style of architecture as the existing building. It will join and become a part of the structure at the southeast entrance. The main entrance will face the Stadium on North 8th street.

The construction will be AAA with the principal materials of brick, steel, and reinforced concrete. Plans for the building have been approved by the State Fire Marshal, State Department of Health, State Department of Education, and the Civilian Requirements Division of the United States Office of Education.

This building will serve as the core of the physical education program. Since all high school students are required to earn unit credit each year in health, physical, and safety education, this additional facility will fill a most urgent need of the students at Neville. The emphasis in these courses is on individual development of each pupil today. Activities will be provided which will serve the needs and interests of all pupils individually and collectively.

The structure will contain, in addition to the instructional areas, lobby facilities, concession space, ticket and telephone booths, public rest rooms, and space for the display of athletic trophies. The main large area will provide the larger basketball area, plus smaller courts for practice areas in other games, sports, and exercises.

Dressing and shower rooms, storage and office areas are provided. One area will serve school and community groups. A unit kitchen is provided to serve this social - living - instructional area where guests are received, meetings held, and refreshments served to participants in conferences, study groups, and student-activity groups.

Following the policy of the Monroe City School Board, the building has been planned and will be equipped in the most modern manner. The clock and bell system, intercommunication system, electrically - controlled timing and scoring devices for athletic contests and games, and audio-visual equipment, among many other outstanding features, assure an excellent program of instruction and activities at Neville High School.

POLICE ARREST

Lenard, 19, 2600 Louisville Avenue. Each was placed under $25 cash bond.

The estimated damage to the barbecue pit in the attack which Prentice Wallace, 17, Route 2, Monreportedly occurred Wednesday night around 10:15 was placed at between $600 and $700. The pit had just recently been completed for the Oldtimers meeting this Monday night. The building in which the pit was housed had not been completed.

S. C. "Squenchie" Nettles, one of the charter members of the Oldtimers club, stated that all members of the legion were at a loss for words concerning the destruction of the pit since all had spent a great deal of time, labor and energy to get it built. "We are mad about the destruction and demand to see that they are punished for their crime."

The four youths bent and twisted the steel rods which held the storm fence wire upon which the barbecue is cooked, pried bricks from the pit and knocked out wooden sections of the building.

Asked by police officers for an explanation of their crime all four stated that they had no particular reason. "We had been drinking beer" was the explanation. The four boys were accompanied by four girls.

The barbecue pit was constructed by legion members who donated their labor, materials and time to it's construction. All legion members were proud of the pit and many gala affairs had been built around it.

The four charged youths will be tried before Judge W. M. Harper in city court Monday at 1:30 p. m.

It makes each drop of gas say uncle

ACCORDING to combustion experts, there's as much energy locked in a drop of gasoline as there is in a drop of nitroglycerine.

But the problem is to put that energy to work.

So Buick engineers aren't content just to mix that drop with air and touch it off. They've designed an engine that brings it catapulting into a cylinder head where it strikes a turbo-top piston—gets whipped into a churning, swirling ball of tight-packed energy.

Then it's fired. And when that happens, a drop of gasoline certainly lets loose power.

This isn't something that happens in a "car of the future."

It happens in a Buick Fireball 8 Engine today. It's a high-compression engine. It's a valve-in-head engine. But it's also a Fireball in performance as well as name.

And it puts extra power under the hood—and extra miles in the fuel back in the gas tank.

Now, power is great, but what goes with it?

Mister, that's something you ought to find out—and soon.

What goes with it is an automobile as sweet-handling, eager and willing as anything that ever made your pulse leap to a faster beat.

It's a car that seems to know what you want it to do—true and sure in its course on a straightaway—beautifully balanced on curves.

It's a car with Dynaflow Drive* to feed power with infinite smoothness—and a road-hugging levelness of ride that took a million in cold cash to perfect.

And it is, with all this, a very tidy bargain. Why not price it, drive it, know it for yourself? We'll be glad to arrange a demonstration.

SPORTS TAKE 2ND STRAIGHT FROM BATHERS

MONROE BLASTS 5 SPA PITCHERS FOR 7-3 VICTORY

'Arky' Bowden Notches Triumph; Series Final Today

(Special) — The Monroe Sports jumped on five Hot Springs pitchers here tonight to notch their second straight win over the Hot Springs Bathers, 7-3, and it was the first time this season the only Louisiana member of the Cotton States League has been able to win two straight.

"Arky" Bowden went all the way on the mound for the Sports after a shaky first inning in which the Spas got all their runs. Bowden held the Bathers to six hits, three of them bunched in the initial frame.

Wayne Parks, John Sans, Joe Dismukes, Johnny Crimi, and Al Christenson paraded to the mound for the Bathers, allowing nine hits and walking eight. Sans, who delivered two of four runs in Monroe's big third inning, was charged with the defeat.

Jesse Van Winkle and John Paul Jones each got two hits for the Sports, including a double apiece. Manager Charley Harrington, Fred Martini, and Hal Walther also hit doubles for the visitors. "Babe" Tuckey, Jim Schumacher, and Kirby Dickens got extra-base blows for the Spas.

The two clubs wind up their three - game series here Sunday afternoon. During the day today, Hot Springs released Outfielder Don Hilton and First Baseman "Moose" Shetler. Emory Petty, a newcomer to the club, went into center field tonight, and Manager Bob Benish took over Shetler's old place at first base.

Parks walked Jesse Van Winkle, Skipper Charley Harrington, and Carl Franson to load the bases with Sports after two were out in t' first inning. A wild pitch scored Van Winkle.

The Bathers passed the Sports with three unearned runs in the same frame. With two out, Emory Petty singled. Johnny Jones erred on a Joe Stern bounder. "Babe" Tuckey doubled, scoring Petty and Stern. A triple by Jim Schumacher scored Tuckey.

Monroe loaded the bases with two walks and a single by Bowden in the second, but couldn't score. The Spas missed a sure run in the second when Kirby Dickens, after socking a triple, left the bag too soor on Wally Rasmussen's fly to Harrington in center field and was doubled off third.

Hal Walther's double after Johnny Jones and Franson had singled drove in the two base runners to tie the score and finish the night's work for Parks with none out in the third. Sans came to Parks' relief, and Andrews lined out to Durnin who doubled Walther off second. But Sans walked Ray Rodgers and Bowden. Then Van Winkle blasted him off the mound with a double that scored Rogers and Bowden, sending Monroe into a 5-3 lead. Dismukes replaced Sans to retire the side as Harrington grounded to Tuckey.

The Sports opened up again in the sixth as Van Winkle singled and Harrington and Fred Martini followed with successive doubles to rout Dismukes with two runs in and none out. Crimi became the fourth Hot Springs pitcher. Crimi got Jones and Walther on outfield flies, and Franson fanned to stop the sixth inning damage.

INTENT HOME 1ST IN FORTY-NINERS

ALBANY, Calif., May (AP)—Making his northern California racing debut a triumphant one, Intent, with Johnnie Longden up, raced to a nose victory over Lights Up in the $20,000 - added Forty-Niners Handicap before a gathering of 21,907 people at Golden Gate Fields this afternoon.

Engaging in a furious stretch battle with Lights Up, Intent managed to get up in the last stride to win first money of $24,200 for his owner, Harry Isaacs of Brookfield farm, and boost his 1952 earnings to $193,850 — making Intent the leading handicap money-winner to date.

Packing top weight of 126 pounds, Intent went the mile and one-eighth in 1:47 3-5 and had to survive a claim of foul lodged against him by Jockey Taylor Powell, who finished third aboard the rank outsider Conversion. The latter ran coupled with Skelter in the field.

Stewards disallowed the claim.

Installed as the heavy favorite, Intent paid $4.50, $3.40, $2.90; Lights Up, $4.40 and $3.70; and Conversion, $14.20.

DOUBLE-A TITLE TO TERREBONNE

Ouachita's Cook Third In 440 At State Track Meet

RUSTON, La., May 3 (AP)—Terrebonne High of Houma came through with 46 points today to take the team championship in the state double-A track meet at Louisiana Tech.

Running a close second was Byrd of Shreveport with 42 points. Third was Jesuit of New Orleans with 39 points.

Istrouma of Baton Rouge had 31-½ points, Fair Park of Shreveport, 28; Bossier, 15; Baton Rouge, 12; Warren Easton of New Orleans, 12; St. Aloysius of New Orleans 10½; Ouachita of Monroe 8; Holy Cross of New Orleans, 6; Lake Charles, 2; Francis T. Nichols of New Orleans, 1.

Two state records fell by the wayside. Paul Adams of Bossier turned in a 1:59.1 in the 880-yard run to break the 2:01.3 record set by Connolly of Baton Rouge in 1938.

Byyrd's crack mile relay team, composed of Harold Rosbottom, Gene Newton, Curtis Newbourne and Harold Smith, ran a 3:28.1 mile relay to break the 3:29.8 record set in 1939 by a relay squad from Ouachita.

SCOTLAND PRODUCED the new golf professional of McGuire Park Club, West Monroe. He is Jack Finlay (above) who has already assumed his duties as pro at McGuire.

Native Of Scotland, Jack Finlay, Is New Pro At McGuire Park Club

Comes To West Monroe Course From Post At Bunkie

Scotland, the land, where the game of golf first won fame as a sport, has produced the newest professional for McGuire Park Golf Club, West Monroe. He is Jack Finlay, formerly of the British army, who has made his home in the United States for the past six years.

Finlay, who came to this country as a "male war bride," took over management of McGuire Park Golf Club Thursday and already is introducing ideas popular with the golfing fraternity.

He came here from Bunkie where he had served as pro at Avoyelles Country Club for the past three and a half years. Earlier, he had spent one year as professional at the Minden Country Club.

Learning his golf in Scotland, Finlay comes to McGuire well equipped to teach beginners and accomplished players. He has had particular success in instruction of ladies, having had many outstanding pupils among the fairer sex. He is now available for teaching appointments at McGuire.

Finlay was serving with the British army in India during World War II when he met his wife, a Shreveport girl serving there with the American Red Cross. They were married at Bombay, India in 1945. While in active service in India, Finlay was twice decorated for valor in addition to having been awarded the British equivalent of the American Order of the Purple Heart with oak leaf cluster.

The new pro has already announced greens fees at McGuire will now be 50 cents per day to all players whether or not they are residents of West Monroe. Previously, non-resident golfers faced a $1 fee.

Little Loop Gets $210 For Stadium

Business picked up for Little League baseball here yesterday as $210 was contributed to the park-building fund by four sources. It was one of the biggest donation sums in recent days toward construction of the miniature park.

Contributing were Ouachita Coca Cola Bottling Company, United Carbon Company, Dr. Henry Guerriero, and D. Masur and Sons.

Work on the park has stopped, however, and will be resumed only when sufficient funds are on hand to complete the work.

Rayville Falls To Neville, 4-1

RAYVILLE, La., May 3 (Special)—The Tigers of Neville High School beat the Rayville Hornets in a jam-up baseball game here tonight, 4-1.

Rayville led Neville till the fourth inning when Scalia's triple drove in Leos, who had singled and then stole second. The two teams remained dead-locked until the eighth inning when the Tigers put over three tallies.

Leading hitters for Neville were Ryhmes, who hit a triple; Leos, 2-4, including a triple; Scalia 2-4, including a triple. Cumpton led for Rayville with 2-4.

This was Neville's seventh win of the season, against three losses. Rayville will invade Monroe on Monday to play the Tigers and seek to even the series.

A's Buy Bevan From Red Hose

PHILADELPHIA, May 3 (AP) — The Philadelphia Athletics today purchased for the $10,000 waiver price the contract of Infielder Joseph Harold Bevan, from the Boston Red Sox, a deal that may be the start of a bigger swap between the A's and Red Sox.

Bevan, 21-year-old native of New Orleans, hit .286 for the Red Sox New Orleans farm team last year. In 145 games, Bevan drove home 68 runs and smashed seven home runs, four triples and 23 doubles. He played 93 games at second base, 21 as a shortstop and 31 at first base. He played in one game for the Sox this season.

The Red Sox drafted Bevan from Hollywood in the Pacific Coast League at the end of the 1951 season. The infielder will report to the Athletics immediately.

It was reported that the purchase of Bevan may be the start of a Red Sox—A's swap that will send Catcher Joe Tipton to Boston and bring right handed Pitcher Willard Nixon to the Athletics.

Hill Gail Beats Sub Fleet By Two Lengths In 78th Kentucky Classic

By JOHN CHANDLER

LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 3 (AP) — Hill Gail, backed by the greatest Kentucky Derby combination of them all, won the 78th running of the turf classic today.

It was the fifth triumph in the Derby both for Calumet Farm and Jockey Eddie Arcaro, and the sixth for Trainer Ben Jones.

The fleet Hill Gail, favorite from the start, was two lengths in front of the 15 other three - year - old thoroughbreds when he completed the mile and a quarter in near record time.

The second horse was Sub Fleet of Charles T. Fisher's Dixiana stable. Blue Man, owned by A. W. Abbott, finished third.

A roaring crowd, estimated by Churchill Downs at a record-breaking 110,000 persons, saw Hill Gail travel the Derby course in 2 minutes one and 3-5th seconds, one fifth slower than the track record.

A nation - wide television audience, estimated by the Columbia Broadcasting System at 50,000,000, also looked on as Blue Man finished eight and three-quarter lengths behind Sub Fleet. Blue Man was second choice in the betting.

Hill Gail's performance earned $96,350 for his owners, the fabulous Lexington, Ky., thoroughbred factory owned by Mrs. Warren Wright. Until today Calumet was tied in Kentucky Derby victories with the late E. R. Bradley's record of four won.

The total purse for the race was $124,350.

The track was fast and dry with a wam sun beating down on the mint-juleped crowd in shirt sleeves, and Hill Gail came within a fifth of a second of the 2:01 2-5 Derby track record established b yWhirlaway in 1941. Arcaro rode for Ben Jones, and Calumet, in that one, too.

Hill Gail, a handsome dark bay son of Bull Lea-Jane Gail, had tipped his class before a Louisville crowd last Tuesday when he went the one mile Derby trial in a romp and broke the track record.

So it was natural that the customers were going to go for him in a big way at the mutuel windows. He opened at 7 to 5, then changed to 6 to 5 and held there until two minutes before the post time, then dropped to even money on the board. He actually paid $4.20, $4.00, and $3.20 for $2 across the board.

Sub Fleet returned $14.60 and $7.80 to place, while Blue Man was

The purse of $124,350 was the third richest of these Churchill Downs classics. Hill Gail's share of $96,300 compared with the record $98,050 paid to Count Turf last year and $96,400 to Assault in 1946.

It was the second big Derby for Hill Gail this year, since the colt copped the $100,000 Santa Anita Derby Feb. 23 in California. With his $79,790 earned as a two-year old, and $129,425 up until today, Hill Gail now has a total bankroll of $305,515. And apparently plenty more is to come if he stays healthy. He's named for the Preakness two weeks hence, and thence the Belmont Stakes, among other big sophomore classics.

Munger, Werle Swap Uniforms

PITTSBURGH, May 3 (AP)— Southpaw Bill Werle, Pittsburgh Pirate pitcher who was fined $500 for a spring training infraction, was traded to the St. Louis Cardinals today for George Munger, a 33-year - old right hand flinger.

Pirate officials indicated no cash was involver, saying merely that "contracts were exchanged."

Branch Rickey, Buc general manager, completed the deal in a telephone conversation with Fred Saigh, president of the Cardinals.

Munger, who has pitched only four innings this season, has a 0-1 record. Werle also has pitched only four innings. He has neither won nor lost.

Rickey also announced the club is not keeping pitcher Jim Suchecki, who was obtained from the American League's St. Louis Browns on a "make good" basis.

Church Softball Loop Will Meet

Managers of all clubs in the Church circuit are advised to be present. Adoption of a schedule heads the night's program.

Fishing Rodeo Won With Amazing New Product

Just One Of Four New Fishing Records Made With This New Technique For Catching More Fish

Gene Dzierwa, Holland Bldg., 211 North 7th St., St., Louis, Missouri was the grand prize winner in the 1951 State of Missouri Fishing Rodeo sponsored by the St. Louis Globe Democrat. Dzierwa won the state-wide contest with a catch of fifteen huge catfish on one afternoon. Eight of the fish weighed over 45 ibs. each and one topped the scales at 70 lbs. He landed this record catch in the Osage River below Bagnell Dam using Doodle Oil Bait Perfume. Dzierwa gives full credit to Doodle Oil for this record catch and claims he could not have won without it.

Other fishermen throughout the United States and Canada are getting new record catches, too, since switching to Doodle Oil.

Antnony Dakuras, 1729 No. 9th St., Sheboygan, Wisconsin reports: I have never had such tremendous success in fishing as I have had since the purchase of my first bottle of Doodle Oil . . . last Saturdya broke all fish catching records I personally ever had. I brought home 64 Lake Michigan Perch. Another day I saw Doodle Oil put to a test. Final results: two fisherman without Doodle Oil 14 Perch in 6 hours . . . two fishermen with Doodle Oil, 106 Perch in 2½ hours.

T. C. "Bubber" Craft, Aliceville, Alabama, has this to say: "I had never caught a mess of fish out of this certain lake in all my twenty years of fishing. After purchasing one bottle of your Doodle Oil and sprinkling a few drops on earthworms, I caught 187 Blue Gill, Shell Crackers, Channel Cat and Bass in the last three mornings of fishing. I'll never go on another fishing trip without Doodle Oil."

From Walter F. Czajka, 3761 E. 71st St., Cleveland, Ohio comes this letter: "Gave Doodle Oil a real test the other day. I fished four hours without Doodle Oil and netted 7 fish. Then I put Doodle Oil on my hook and in 2½ hours, I caught 22 more fish."

You've just read what these fishermen say about Doodle Oil. We've had other stories, just as enthusiastic, about results with Doodle Oil on pike, perch, bass, trout, crappie, catfish, sea trout, sea bass, snook and others.

SMELL LEADS FISH TO FOOD

Fish depend heavily on their sense of smell to find their food. Doodle Oil gives your bait or artificial lure an aromatic scent that appeals to all kinds of fish.

Try Doodle Oil on your next fishing trip. If your fishing tackle dealer doesn't have Doodle Oil yet, order direct by sending $1.00 for each bottle wanted to Davis Mfg. Co., Dept., La-4 113 W. Jackson Ave., Knoxville, Tenn.

BROOKS BEATEN, 3-2; GIANTS TAKE OVER LOOP LEAD

Durochermen Move Up Front With 3-2 Win Over Phils

CHICAGO, May 3, (AP)—Catcher Toby Atwell former Brooklyn farm hand, slammed a bases-loaded single in the tenth inning to give the Chicago Cubs 3-2 victory over the Dodgers and knock them out of the National League lead today.

Atwell's blow, far over Right Fielder Carl Furillo's head, came on a 3-2 pitch with one out against Brooklyn reliefer John Rutherford, who supplanted starter Ben Wade in the seventh.

The defeat dropped the Dodgers, league leaders from opening day, behind the New York Giants, who scored a 3-2 win today over Philadelphia.

Big Bob Rush went the route for the Cubs, scattering eight hits, for his second victory against two defeats.

BOSOX COMMAND 3-GAME MARGIN AS LOOP LEADER

Mental Lapses Cost Yanks Game With Tigers, 6-3

BOSTON, May 3 (AP)— The Boston Red Sox backed veteran Ellis Kinder with a 10 - hit attack, including Don Lenhardt's third homer of the season, today while taking the odd game of a three-game series from the fast traveling St. Louis Browns, 5-2.

Kinder was in trouble only once, in the second inning when the Browns did all of their scoring by bunching four of their eight hits to pull into a 2-1 lead.

Vern Stephens tripled in Jim Piersall with the initial Boston run in the first inning and the Sockers clinched matters against Earl Hartist by adding two more markers in the third.

Lenhardt's four - bagger came with one out and the bases empty in the fifth and the combination of a Lepcio two - bagger and a Sammy White single concluded the Boston scoring in the sixth.

TIGERS BELT YANKS

NEW YORK, May 3, (AP)— The Detroit Tigers capitalized on two mental lapses by the New York Yankees today to beat the world champions, 6-3.

Outfielder Mickey Mantle of the Yanks pulled the first boner in the fifth inning when he failed to touch second base on his way to third on a single by Yogi Berra. The lapse nullified a Yankee run and ended a promising rally that had produced one run.

The second Yank skull came in the eighth inning when the Tigers scored three runs to break a 2-2 tie and clinch the decision. With one run in, two on and one out, Vic Wertz raised a high fly to center. Hank Bauer and Gene Woodling permitted the ball to drop between them for a double.

The "gift" allowed Gerry Priddy to score and Johnny Groth to reach third base. Groth scored the third run on Steve Souchock's fly. An error by Bobby Brown in the ninth led to Detroit's final run.

BIG CAR RACERS AT SHREVEPORT

Seven - Event Program Scheduled For Tomorrow Afternoon

SHREVEPORT, La., May 2 — (Special) — The Louisiana State Fair grounds will be the scene of speed thrills and action Sunday when top drivers of speedway type big cars compete for prize money in excess of $2,000.

Entries from a dozen states are already in for the International Motor Contest Association sanctioned meet.

Outstanding drivers include Deb Snyder, Kent, O., and Bert Hellmueller, Louisville, Ky. Snyder in his Offenhauser, valued at over $15,000, last year broke six long standing records held by speed kings Emory Collins, Jimmie Wilburn and the late Gus Schroeder. Hellmueller will pilot his aircraft type air - cooled Ranger race creation which has consistently beaten some of the best Offies in the race game.

There will be plenty of competition in the scramble for top money Sunday afternoon. At least a dozen "major leaguers" in the big car race game will be on

Meals in a Minute

WITH THE GREAT NEW WORK-SAVING COLDSPOT FREEZER

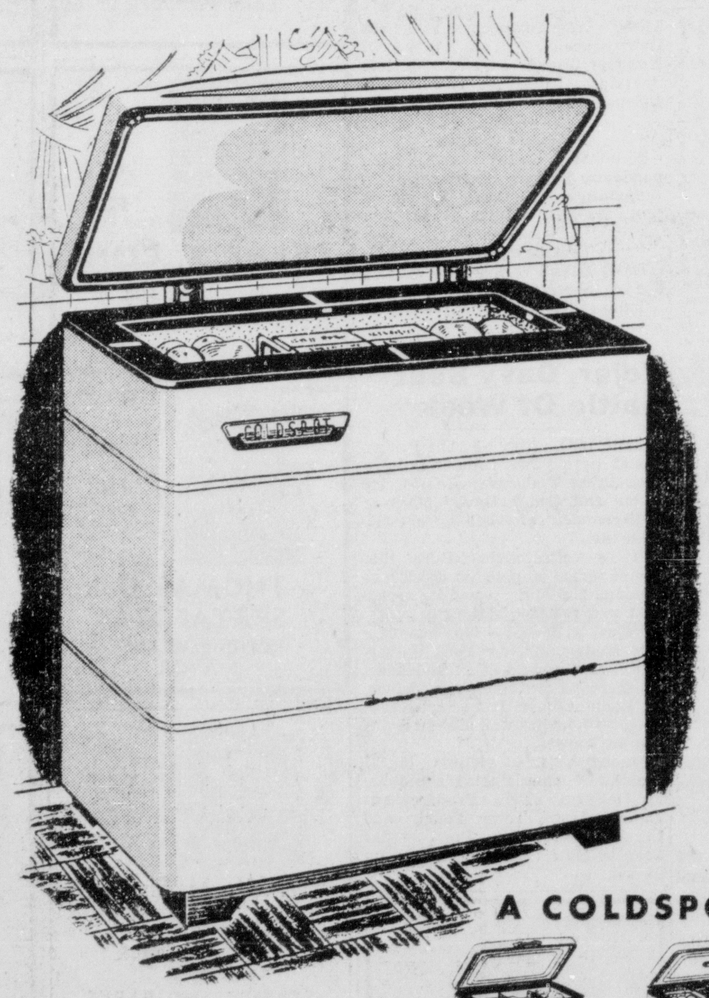

Planning weeks ahead—Coldspot lets you cook many meals at one time—to be individually frozen and stored for future meals in a minute.

Alarm clock blues are out the window — Coldspot breakfasts of frozen toasts, waffles and juices are delicious, simple to prepare and time-saving.

Smile with confidence—when unexpected guests drop in just prior to meal time. Your secret is the gold mine you have in your house—a Coldspot filled with complete menus of meals in a minute.

WOMEN NOW SAVE TIME IN MEAL PREPARATION WITH COLDSPOT . . .

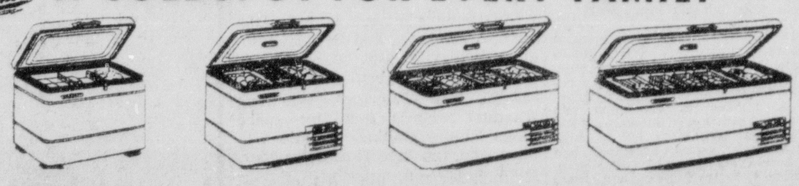

Here's What Mrs. Ralph Meade of Chicago Says . . .

"Both my husband and I work in offices. Consequently, I don't have the normal amount of time for economical meal preparation. —Then we bought a Coldspot! Now —we pay less for our food—we enjoy better eating—we save time and effort. Any working couple should own a great new Coldspot Freezer!"

To live better—to spend less! That is the happy experience of more and more people . . . people who buy the great new Coldspot Freezer! Now no one need be tied down to a routine of three daily jobs of meal preparation. Coldspot ignores the clock—lets you enjoy new freedom from extra expense and repeated meal planning!

To The Public:

May is "Fix-Up — Paint-Up — Spruce-Up" Time
Time.

We are authorized to furnish you needed cash for Home or Car repairs, or other needs, any amount from $50 to $1000.

See us to "clean up old bills", too. Lump your debts together and pay them with one payment a month. Can mean LESS to pay—MORE that you can keep out of each pay check.

Come in or phone. If you can't see us during the day because of work, we will be glad to wait for you after work.

Thumbnail History of Monroe

Established as Fort Miro in 1875 by Don Juan Filhiol

First called "Prairie des Canots"

Filhiol's house located on spot now in middle of Ouachita River due to fact that stream has changed its course.

Incorporated as town of Monroe in 1820.

Monroe become a city May 1, 1971,

Under administration of Dr. A. A. Forsythe, mayor, a municipal waterworks was installed and also a municipal electric light plant purchased and much enlarged.

First discovery of the world's largest gas field was in 1916.

Deaths

OSCAR MURRY

FARMERVILLE, La., May 3 (Special)—Oscar Murray, 17, died in an El Dorado, Ark., hospital at 9:30 p. m. Friday night. He was a resident of El Dorado.

Funeral services will be held at the Conway Baptist Church near Farmerville, at 3 p. m. Sunday with the Rev. Lonnie Lassiter, pastor of the West Side Baptist Church of El Dorado, officiating. Interment will be in the Conway Cemetery under the direction of Kilpatrick Funeral Home of Farmerville.

He is survived by his wife; parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Murray, Farmerville; five brothers, E. B., M. N., E. E. and A. G., all of El Dorado, and A. B. Murray, Jr., with the United States Air Force in Denver, Colorado; and two sisters, Mrs. Virginia Mae Kitchen of Bastrop and Mrs. Bessie Tucker of Homer.

Rites Are Set For Mrs. Jordan

Funeral services for Mrs. W. G. Jordan, 47, of Memphis, Tenn., will be held at the Mulhearn Funeral Chapel at 2 p. m. Monday. Burial will be in the Riverview Cemetery.

Mrs. Jordan is survived by her husband W. G. Jordan of Memphis and her mother Mrs. Henry Banister and two brothers Guy Banister, in charge of F. B. I. in Minneapolis, Minn.; and Ross Banister, attorney of Baton Rouge.

The remains of Mrs. Jordan, who passed away in Memphis, will arrive in Monroe at 11:30 p. m. Sunday.

Rev. James T. Horton pastor of the First Baptist Church will officiate.

Liddieville Man Taken By Death

WINNSBORO, La. May 3 (Special)—James A. Chapman, 50, resident of the Liddeville community near Winnsboro, died at his home Saturday. Funeral services are incomplete pending arrival of relatives, but interment will be in Ogden Cemetery. The First National Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Mamie J. Chapman of Winnsboro, a daughter, Mrs. Gladys Holloway of Spring Hill; and three sons, A. J. Chapman of Monroe, and George A. Chapman and Jimmie Ray Chapman, both of Winnsboro. Also surviving are three sisters, Mrs. C. E. Spence of Winnsboro, Mrs. Idell McLemore of Pineville and Mrs. P. B. Carr of Delhi; and four brothers, Leon Chapman of Delhi, W. T. Chapman, Elon Chapman and David Chapman, all of Winnsboro.

FIRE ALARMS

Monroe firemen extinguished a fire at 909 Pine street after receiving the call Saturday at 9:30 p.m. Firemen stated that damage was small and that the cause of the fire was electrical defects. Engines 101, 103 and ladder company two answered the call.

AUTOMOTIVE HINT

When the cylinder head has been removed from an automobile engine, it a good plan to see if the ignition timing has been disturbed, because it is much easier to set the timing while the head is off than afterward.

LOWER LEFT—Miss Mamie Jo Drouet, whose engagement and approaching marriage to James Ailyn Cheneval, son of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar C. Cheneval, of Alexandria, is announced today by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Miller Drouet, of this city.

LOWER CENTER—Mrs. Ferdinand Magnus McGinn, the former Phallie Evans, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rupert Evans, of Lake Providence, before her marriage April 14th in Lake Providence. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Wallace McGinn, of Crowley.

LOWER RIGHT—Miss Mary Ann Burk, of Rayville, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Thomas Burk, of Liberty, Miss., whose engagement and approaching marriage to Frederick William Bennerscheidt, son of Mr. Frederick Davis Bennerscheidt, and the late Eliza Bronn Bennerscheidt, of New Orleans, is announced today.

Miss Phallie Evans Weds Ferdinand Magnus McGinn

St. Patrick's Catholic Church was the scene Monday, April 14, at 9:30, of the beautifully solemnized nuptial mass uniting in marriage Miss Phallie Evans, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rupert Evans of Lake Providence, and Ferdinand Magnus McGinn, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Wallace McGinn of Crowley.

The Rev. William M. Hopp read the vows for the double ring ceremony. The acolytes were Owen Stewart Brown, Jr., cousin of the bride and Justin Gross, II.

For the wedding occasion the altar and sanctuary were effective in a decorative arrangement of huckleberry foliage, Oregon fern, white gladioli, stock and Easter lilies in vases and floor baskets fronted with wide, embossed white ribbons. Slim tapers in multiple plumosa entwined candelabra cast a soft glow over the wedding scene.

Throughout the mass a program of nuptial music was provided by Mrs. Anna Ransdell Cox, organist, who accompanied Vocalist Sam B. Beazer, Lake Arthur, whose selections included "O Promise Me," "O Sanctissima," "Ave Maria," "Panis Angelicus," and "Agnus Dei." The traditional wedding marches marked the beginning and end of the ceremony.

The bride, walking to the altar on the arm of her father, was exquisitely gowned in a model of white slipper satin, fashioned with an off-shoulder marquisette yoke framed in satin, simulated pearl centered fleur d'amour, from which fell an heirloom bertha of Rosepoint lace from her mother's wedding gown, and used by other brides in the family. The tightly fitted bodice, fastening down the back with small, self-covered buttons and with the long sleeves tapering into petal points over the hands, accented the youthful grace and charm of the bride.

The voluminous folds of the pleated skirt fell into a cathedral train, patterned in fleur d'amour sprays. Her veil of imported illusion fell from a Rosepoint Juliet cap, which was encircled with pearlized orange blossoms. She carried a cascade bouquet of valley lilies, satin ribbon tulle and white orchids.

Mrs. William Mortimer Knobles, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. Young Misses Carolyn Thomas, cousin of the bride, and Kay McGinn, sister of the groom, were junior attendants. All wore gowns of pink net over taffeta and carried old fashioned bouquets of purple stock and sweetheart roses, framed in lace, with loops and streamers of pink satin ribbon. Mrs. Knobles added a circular capelet bordered in haircloth scroll design over the bare top bodice of narrow folds. She added a triple strand choker of pearls and rippled brimmed open crown haircloth hat in the dresses shade.

Miss Thomas and McGinn combined taffeta and net with bodices of taffeta. The rounded necklines were outlined with single strands of pearls. Their yokes were draped in deep ruffling, and the sleeves were short and puffed. The bouffant skirts were fronted with ruffled medallions. The French bonnets of net were trimmed in pink forget-me nots.

Louis Mayeau of Crowley was best man for the bridegroom and the ushers were Horace McGinn, uncle of the groom, Byron Core, William Lawson, all of Crowley, and William Mortimer Knobles of Lake Providence. All wore suits of white tropical linen, black ties and white carnation bouttonieres.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Evans chose a gown of cocoa Rosemont lace, with matching grograin ribbon trim. A handwoven straw shell beret, in black velvet trim, added a short mesh veil. Accessories were in black and corsage was of chartreuse cymbibum orchids on velvet tubette.

Mrs. McGinn, mother of the bridegroom, wore a spring coulеur de rose model combining linen and lace, with deep square lace yoke and matching side panel. Effective was the diagonal placement of the button trim. She added a Queen Anne shell appliqued in dark blue velvet and pinned a pale lavender orchid at the shoulder.

Reception Follows Ceremony

The bridal couple, their mothers, and feminine members of the wedding party received in the spacious lounge before a picture window.

Miss Katherine Pittman invited the many guests to register in the bride's book. She wore white nylon organza patterned with multicolored hearts. Her shoulder corsage was of pink rosebuds.

School day chums, Miss Jorene Myers of Clarksdale, Miss., and Mrs. Lewis Craig of Monroe, assisted in the receiving. Miss Myers was gowned in pale green organdy with twin miniature collars. Corsage of white carnations was worn at the waistline.

Mrs. Craig's stole costume of chartreuse chiffon, had camisole bodice accented with white Schiffli embroidery. At the narrow shoulder straps of the bare top bodice were gathered ends of the stole, causing it to drape over the upper arms and swing loose across the back. A corsage of red carnations was worn in the belting.

The bride's table was covered with a floor length white organza cloth with scalloped shadow hem, and pleated heading at the table's edge. A low silver bowl of Numa Fay roses was the decor, while at either end were cutglass punch bowls, presided over by the groom's grandmothers, Mrs. F. M. Fontenot and Mrs. Wallace McGinn, Sr., both of Crowley. Massive branched candelabra held white lighted tapers. Assisting in the serving were Miss Amanda Brown, cousin of the bride, wearing pink organdy with Peter Pan collar, rhinestones buttoning the bodice and belted in black velvet, with pink carnation corsage; Miss Vivian Goode, high school classmate, in blue nylon voile of flattering simplicity with mandarin collar and pink carnation corsage; Miss Elizabeth (Boodie) Hamley, in an aqua slubbed silk with draped neckline and corsage of pink roses.

Mrs. Max Stockner and Mrs. Pearl F. Brown presided at the cake service placed on a round table with white organza cloth, effective with airy white maline poufs studded with pink rosebud nosegays. The cake, three tiered confection, had each tier supported by fluted columns, based with cherubs and decorated with pink roses, green leaves and white swans.

Assisting in the courtesies of receiving and serving at the reception were the four adorable cousins of the bride. Misses Brenda Brown, Martha Brown, Mary Virginia Brown and Suzanne Brown, wearing full length gowns in pastel shades. Misses Martha and Mary Virginia Brown chose pale blue, effective in ruffling, with the former's corsage of white carnations and the latter's in yellow. Miss Brenda Brown wore green net with rounded neckline and short sleeves. The tucked side panels added interest. Her corsage was of pink carnations. Miss Suzanne Brown chose rose, in drop shoulder with white carnations pinned to a shoulder strap.

For Wedding Trip

For the wedding trip to South Louisiana the bride was wearing a two piece suit of navy faille with smoked pearl button trim. The bustle back navy straw profile hat was flower trimmed. Grey lizzard pumps and bag and shoulder corsage of white orchids from her bridal bouquet was complemented with a Kolinsky fur neck piece.

Mr. and Mrs. McGinn will be temporarily located in Lake Charles.

Out-Of-Town

Noted among the out of town guests were Mrs. Thayer McCoy, Greenville, Miss., Mr. and Mrs. Rupert Cook, Shaw, Miss., Mrs. Richard Nichols, Mr. and Mrs. William Cook and Mrs. Norris Williamson, Vicksburg, Miss., Mr. and Mrs. Walter Geary and children and Dr. and Mrs. B. R. Burgoyne, Baton Rouge; Mrs. R. M. Hamberlin, Mrs. C. B. Mitchell, Mrs. Lewis Craig, of Monroe; Mrs. Horace Lee, Mr. and Mrs. Mark H. Brown, Jr., Mrs. W. Z. Adams, Mrs. Leo Shields, Mrs. W. P. Sevier, of Tallulah; Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Sims, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Kelly, Mrs. David McIntosh, and Mrs. S. A. Holt, of Oak Grove; Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Wallace McGinn, Sr., Mrs. F. M. Fontenot, Mrs. Horace McGinn, Miss Shirley Carlin, Miss Betty Menard, Dr. and Mrs. H. M. Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lewis, Miss Hilda Fontenot, Bobby Hanise, Mr. and Mrs. Gary Bergeron, Mrs. Robert Broadhurst, Mrs. Windsor Harmon, Mr. and Mrs. John Lawson, Miss Lilly Mar Forman, all of Crowley; Mrs. Sebastian Patout, New Iberia; Mrs. P. L. Carriere, New Orleans.

Rehearsal Supper

On Sunday evening following the church rehearsal at seven the bridal party and members of the immediate families and out-of-town overnight guests were entertained at a steak supper at the Legion Home on Tensas Bayou.

The guests, assembling at Gailliard, home of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Brown for cocktails and hors d'oeuvers, went in groups to the Legion home for supper.

Hosts were the four maternal uncles of the bride and their wives, and were Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Brown and Mr. and Mrs. O. S. Brown

There were 50 guests entertained at the supper

Miss Elizabeth Anne Mulhern Weds William Herman Anders, Jr.

First Baptist Church Is Setting For Impressive Double-Ring Ceremony

In a double-ring ceremony marked by artistry and simplicity Miss Elizabeth Anne Mulhern, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Barney Louis Mulhern, of this city, became the bride of William Herman Anders, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. William Herman Anders, of Shreveport. The First Baptist Church on Monroe was the scene of the service which was solemnized at 4:30 o'clock in the afternoon of Sunday, April 27.

Rev. James T. Horton, pastor, officiated at the ceremony. He was assasted by the Rev. R. L. Cooke of Shreveport. The wedding was attended by a concourse of relatives and freinds .

The bridal couple exchanged the nupital vows before the altar which was decorated with branched candelabra entwined with Southern Smilax, in which tall white cathedral tapers burned. Tall standards overflowed with white gladioli. Wedding bells decorated each candelabra. Down both aisles were placed burning white tapers, while white ribbons marked the places within the ribboned section.

Miss Doris Nell Penny, close friend of the bride, rendered "Through the Years" and "Because." During the ceremony she sang "The Lord's Prayer." Miss Bobbye Ponder, at the organ, accompanied Miss Penny and played the processional from Wagner's "Loghengrin" and Mendelssohn's "Recessional."

The candels were lighted by Miss Nancy Shehee of Arcadia and Mr. Nevin Morgan of Shreveport.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was lovely in her wedding gown of traditional white satin and lace. The fitted bodice of Chantilly lace had long sleeves ending in points over the hands. The sleeves were edged in nylon net which was also used at the yoke. The small stand-up collar was of Chantilly lace. The bouffant skirt of rich Chantilly lace over nylon net ended in a cathedral length train. The bride's veil of illusion cascaded from a tiara of shirred nylon net.

Matron of honor was Mrs. W. J. Sowers, of Midland, Tex. Bridesmaids were Miss Jackye Fallon, Miss Cecil Ann Oliver, Miss Pat Ann Rector and Miss Carolyn Tait. The bridal attendants were wearing gowns of tulle over taffeta with tight fitting bodice and bouffant skirts. Pastel shades were used with Mrs. Sowers in blue, Miss Fallow wearing lavender, Miss Oliver in green, Miss Rector in yellow and Miss Tait in pink. They carried bouquets of pastel colored minature mums in rainbow colors.

Mr. W. H. Anders served his son as best man. The groomsmen were Mr. Wiley C. Joyner, Jr., Mr. Jerry Smetzer, Mr. T. Pat Dickson, Mr. Jack Pennington. Ushers were Mr. Nevin Morgan of Shreveport, Mr. Cecil Harris, of Monroe and Mr. Larry Shirley, of Shreveport.

The bride's mother was lovely in a rose lace and crepe with which she wore an orchid corsage. The bridegroom's mother was gowned in an aqua lace and crepe with lace drape. She wore an orchid corsage.

Wedding Reception

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the Y. W. C. A., 1515 Jackson. Greeting the guests were their parents and members of the wedding party. At the guest book was Miss Carolyn Tait.

Through the house were beautiful flowers attractively arranged. The mantel held an arrangement of colonial design.

For their wedding trip to Hot Springs, Ark., the bride changed into a purple tailleur of silk shantung with hat and gloves of orchid color. Her other accessories were of navy blue. She wore the orchid from her wedding bouquet. Upon their return the young couple will be at home at 217 Lotus St., San Antonio, Tex.

The bride is a graduate of Ouachita Parish High School and Louisiana Tech where she was a member of Theta Upsilon sorority. The bridegroom graduated from Byrd High School and Louisiana Tech. He is a member of Lambda Chi Alpha.

Out-Of-Town Guests

Out-of-town guests attending the wedding were Miss Betty Lou Seabolt, of Shreveport; Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Green, Mrs. J. W. Evans, Mr. and Mrs. F. O. Adams, Jr., Miss Katherine M. Butler, Mr. Jack Sewell, Miss Jane Connell, all of Ruston; Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Hanchey and sons, Mrs. Audie W. Moffett, Miss Sarah E. Moffett, Mrs. Ben E. Simms, Mrs. John W. Hosts Entertain At Dance Saturday Night For Dr. And Mrs. Rufus Harris

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bernstein, Jr. Mr. and Mrs. Gibson McDonald, Mr. and Mrs. George Snellings, Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. George Weaks were hosts at a dance Saturday night at the Frances Hotel here in honor of Dr. and Mrs. Rufus C. Harris who were guests over the week-end in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Snellings.

Dr. Harris, president of Tulane University, was accompanied to Monroe by Board Member Clifford Favrot and Mrs. Favrot, who shared honors with Dr. and Mrs. Harris at the Saturday night event.

The Frances Hotel Roof was made festive for the occasion with masses of greenery and hanging from the center of the ballroom was a huge ball of magnolia blossoms.

Over four - hundred guests enjoyed this occasion.

Supper

Preceding the dance the honored guests were entertained at a supper given in their honor by Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Leigh.

Red roses were used throughout the receiving rooms and on the dining table.

Thirty guests enjoyed this occasion with Dr. and Mrs. Harris and Mr. and Mrs. Favrot, and the hosts.

Luncheon

Mrs. Henry Bernstein and Mrs. Scott Hamilton entertained at a luncheon at the Bayou DeSiard Country Club in honor of Mrs. Rufus Harris.

A lovely arrangement of red and white amarylis was used as the central decor on this occasion.

Sharing this occasion with the honoree Mrs. Harris was Mrs. Thomas Leigh, Mrs. John Breard, Mrs. Louis Milner, Mrs. J. Q. Graves, Mrs. George Trousdale, Mrs. George Snellings, Jr., Mrs. Bernstein, and Mrs. Hamilton.

Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Lamkin and Hillyer Speed Lamkin also entertained at a luncheon for the honored Tulane guests.

Morning Coffee

Mr. and Mrs. Kent Breard entertained at an informal coffee hour Sunday morning at eleven o'clock for Dr. and Mrs. Harris, Mr. and Mrs. Favrot and Mr. Gene Nabors, all of New Orleans.

Lovely spring flowers were placed at vantage points throughout the Breard home.

Enjoying this occasion with the honored guests and Mr. and Mrs. Breard were Mr. and Mrs. Snellings and Dr. and Mrs. J. Q. Graves.

Barbecue

Climaxing the round of events honoring the New Orleans guests was the barbecue given Sunday by Dr. and Mrs. Haydn Cutler and Mr. and Mrs. John Theus, at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Cutler.

Guests enjoying boat - riding and the delicious chicken barbeque served by the hosts were Dr. and Mrs. Harris, Mr. and Mrs. Favrot, Mr. Gene Nabors, and Mr. and Mrs. George Snellings, Jr.

Prior to their departure for New Orleans Sunday afternoon the honored guests were entertained with a boatride given by Miss Ellen Kent Millsaps and Mr. Fred Millsaps.

A HAPPY NOTE OR TWO

By J. Paul Hewitt

It's not surprising in the least that music is on the list as "top medicine" at mental hospitals throughout the country. People have been using music for centuries to give a "lift to the spirits". And so when they tell us that patients respond to both the listening and the active participation in music . . . we have a tendency to say, "Of course . . . why not?"

There's music for every mood . . . to inspire, to soothe, to call up a happy response. If the mentally ill . . . who are usually interested in no outside influences . . . will respond to music . . . what must it do for the well? The answer is that music is an important spice to existence. The listening and the playing are enriching to anyone. So when you think of all the good things for your children's future . . . the strong body, the capable mind, the good character . . . remember the things of the spirit. Remember to give them music.

It's time for Twin City Concerts, Inc., to begin their membership drive. We predict membership will exceed any previous year—which, of course, will promise us the nation's top artists. Nowhere can you buy such entertainment for so little — Subscribe early!

Now is the time to start your children out in the lasting inspiration of classical music. Let them choose their favorite pieces of sheet music . . . And learn to love the music of centuries. We have a large selection and we'd like to help you find the pieces that will appeal to the beginners. Come in soon to HEWITT, INC. 216 Grammont. Phone: 2-1491.

B&PW CLUB VIEWS HAT FASHION PARADE AT MAY PROGRAM MEETING

On Tuesday evening last, Radio-Television Chairman Gladys Miles and her capable committee presented a most unique and entertaining program. In her address of welcome Mrs. Miles briefly told of her committee's aims and accomplishments throughout this year. "Good Listening" and "Good Looking" are keystones of their work. To keep good programs on the air and the poor ones off, the listening and seeing public can play an effective role. Stations repeatedly request their unseen audiences to send in post cards indicating their reaction to various programs, and by enough people doing just this, our programs would be more progressively and universally enjoyed.

As they were introduced, a great big hand of appreciation was extended to Radio - Television Co-Chairman Olive Terry and committee members, Mrs. Lillie Mae Carroll, Mrs. Clara Dennis, Miss Bettie Oxford, Miss Mamie Ober and Mrs. Ellen Rothermel.

The mythical dial then spun to New York. Emceeing a Fifth Avenue fashion parade to the soft, musical strains of "Easter Parade" played by Mrs. Eloise Bailey, was Miss Maibel Hood, known far and wide for her artistic versatility. The new hat styles, trends and silhouettes for spring and summer portrayed a happy meeting of designs, which take their inspiration from past eras. Piquancy was evidenced as Mrs. Christine Coleman, Mrs. Edna Vaughan, Mrs. Lillie Mae Carroll and Mrs. Alma Bushnell successively modelled Gibson - girl sailors, rockers, pill boxes, pagodas, bonnets and cocktail chapeaux.

Mrs. Marie Wamsley, a well-known Monroe hair stylist, gave an expert dissertation on hair grooming and skin care. She stressed the importance of attractively arranged hair and healthy skin to properly set off our beautiful hats and costumes. She spoke too on the importance of patronizing a beauty salon that enjoyed a reputation for complete sanitation.

President Louise Massey broadcast that election of officers for the new year would take place on May 13th at Hotel Frances and installation of officers would be an event of May 27th at the Rendezvous. All members were reminded too that the B & P W State Convention would be in session at the Evangeline Hotel in Lafayette May 16 - 18.

To grace the several party rooms, Mrs. Clara Dennis had placed artistic floral arrangements of sweet peas, iris, stock, roses and glads. On the candle - lit dining table colorful dolls in pastel crepe paper attire danced attendance around the white, daisy bedecked Maypole. Yellow and red streamers cascaded from atop the Maypole to blend with its carpet of red carnations. With Miss Olive Terry at the punch bowl, delicious refreshments were served buffet style, with each guest receiving a May day souvenir of miniature spring blossoms.

In attendance were: Mrs. Laura Slator, Mrs. Flora Seaman, Mrs. Emma Lou Perkins, Mrs. Louise Massey, Miss Alma Terry, Mrs. Ellen Rothermel, Mrs. Gladys Miles, Miss Bettie Oxford, Miss Mamie Ober, Mrs. Ruby Sourrea, Mrs. Mae Modes, Miss Ruth Crump, Ruth Cooley, Mrs. Edna Manley, Mrs. Addie Lou Juneman, Miss Maibel Hood, Mrs. Alma Bushnell, Miss Ruth Thomas, Mrs. Clara Dennis, Mrs. Edna Vaughan, Mrs. Evelyn Chilton, Miss Olive Terry, Mrs. Christine Coleman, Mrs. Billie Harrell, Mrs. Dora Anish, Mrs. Krogmire, Miss Mildred Smith, Blanche Lane, Mrs. Gladys Collins, Miss Hazel Wakefield, Miss Elizabeth Stenberg, Mrs. Ouida Oxford, Mrs. Eloise Bailey, Miss Lula Swinson, Mrs. Emma Rosenbaum, Miss Jennie Smith, Mrs. Lucille Mathis, Miss Mary O'Kelly, Mrs. Helen Trichel, Miss Alice Baur, Mrs. Joy Hays, Mrs. Marie Wamsley and Mrs. Anna Mae Breece.

To SAIL FOR EUROPE

Mrs. Milton Gorn and Mrs. Jack Gorn will leave for New York Saturday, May 10th where they will spend several days before sailing for Europe on May 16th. They will be accompanied by Mr. Milton Gorn and his father, Mr. Jack Gorn. The foursome expect to spend eight weeks in Europe. (Staff Photo by John Fogleman)

LITERARY GUILD MEETS IN HOME OF MRS. J. G. DURRETT

Members of The Literary Guild were entertained n the attractive home of Mrs. J. G. Durrett, assisted by Mrs. Ernest D. Holloway as co-hostess.

During the business meeting a report on the fifth district convention held in Rayville, La., was given by Mrs. A. D. Tisdale. She stated that this was one of the most successful meetings and the largest attendance of any convention of the fifth district. Mrs. Todd, state president, addressed the meeting with an inspirational message on building for the future. An announcement was made of the General Federation Meeting on May 12 to 17 at Minneapolis, Minn.

The afternoon's program, on study of literature, was given by Mrs. Duncan Cook. An excellent re - view of "The World of Fiction," by Bernard DeVoto, was most interesting and informative.

During the social hour a delicious salad plate was served to members. Mrs. Nathan Gaston, Mrs. Herbert Breard, Mrs. A. D. Tisdale, Mrs. H. K. Touchstone, Mrs. Milling Bernstein, Mrs. D. T. Milam, Mrs. C. U. Johnson, Mrs. J. P. Brown, Mrs. J. B. Kugler, Mrs. Duncan Cook, and the hostesses.

Attend A PRESBYTERIAN Sunday School

In every child there is an inherent sense of worship which can be developed through regular attendance at Sunday School. Realizing the importance of early religious training, the Presbyterians have organized their Sunday School into a program of Bible training which is especially attractive to children. The popularity of this is shown by the interest in this program among children of all ages. They like the warm and friendly feeling of getting together with other little folks in the atmosphere of the church. If your child is not yet attending Sunday School regularly, then we ask you to come with your child Sunday. Nothing can take the place of Christian training and your personal example.

Miss Mary Ann Burk To Wed Frederick William Bennerscheidt

June Wedding Will Be Solemnized At The Methodist Church In Zachary

Dr. and Mrs. Thomas Burk, of Liberty, Miss., announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Mary Ann, to Frederick William Bennerscheidt, son of Mr. Frederick Davis Bennerscheidt and the late Eliza Bronn Bennerscheidt, of New Orleans, formerly of Natchez, Miss.

The bride-elect is a graduate of Zachary High School and Louisiana State University. She is a member of Chi Omega sorority and Lamda Intersorority. At the present time she is a member of the school board in Richland Parish.

Mr. Bennerscheidt graduated from Natchez High School and Louisiana State University in chemical engineering. He is a member of Delta Kappa fraternity and is now employed with the Southern Carbon Co. of this city.

The wedding will be solemnized June 8th at five-thirty o'clock at the Zachary Methodist Church.

Ida Elizabeth Carter To Wed Amzi Denbe Montgomery

Wedding Will Be Solemnized In Oak Ridge In June

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Sidney Carter, of Oak Ridge, announce the engagement of their daughter, Ida Elizabeth, to Anzi Denbe Montgomery, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Thaddius Montgomery of Lafayette.

Miss Carter is a graduate of The Hockaday Preparatory School in Dallas, Tex., and is now attending Sophie Newcomb College in New Orleans, where she is a member of Chi Omega sorority.

Mr. Montgomery attended Louisiana State University, was graduated from Southwestern Louisiana Institute, and will receive his degree in medicine from Tulane University in May. He is a member of Blue Key honorary fraternity, Sigma Alpha Epsiolon, and Phi Chi, medical fraternity.

The wedding will be solemnized in June.

Nell Maroney Is Feted At Two Bridal Parties

Coffee At Bayou DeSiard Country Club And Shower In Marion Complement Bride-Elect

Miss Nell Maroney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Maroney, of Marion, was honored Saturday morning at the Bayou DeSiard Country Club with a morning coffee.

Hostesses on this occasion were Mrs. H. G. Prophit, Jr., and Mrs. Ralph Stripling.

Mrs. George Levert, sister of the bride - elect, and Mrs. Prophit greeted the guests. In the receiving line with the honoree who was wearing a black sleeveless pique model was Mrs. Stripling, and Mrs. E. H. Maroney, mother of the bride-elect. All wore corsages of sweet peas.

Beautiful arrangements of spring flowers were placed at vantage points throughout the lounge and centering the tea table was an arrangement of yellow carnations, tea sandwiches, cookies and mints while Mrs. Frank Davis presided at the silver coffee service. Assisting with the serving courtesies were Mrs. B. J. Green, Mrs. E. J. Shaver, Mrs. A. D. Bernhardt and Mrs. G. F. Post.

Bridal Shower

Mrs. Robert Tucker of Marion entertained the bride-elect at a bridal shower at her lovely home in Marion, where guests enjoyed the spring flowers both outside and inside this spacious setting.

Guests were received by the hostess, Mrs. Tucker, and Miss Maroney and her mother. A lovely arrangement of handsome gifts in silver, China, crystal and linen were among a setting of Louisiana's flora bunda. Wild honey suckle, grancey greyboard and lovely dogwood in the room gave an atmosphere of the romance of spring.

The expansive living room and the dining room were decorated for the occasion with floral arrangements of snapdragons, iris, daises, heather and gladioli. The bride-elect shall long remember the elaborate gold wedding ring laden with pale pink and yellow spring flowers which centered the dining table over-laid with imported linen cloth.

Mrs. George Lovert of Monroe, Miss Maroney's sister, presided at the punch bowl. Others assisting were Mrs. Ralph Stripling, Miss iris and daisies. Silver trays held Bessie Tucker and Miss Wilma Tucker. Many guests enjoyed the poise and charm of both hostess and honoree.

Out-of-town guests who attended this occasion were: Miss Thelma Powell of Shreveport, Mrs. George Lovert and Miss Norma Stewart of Monroe, Mrs. Felix Haile of Haile, Mrs. Dewey Barr, Mrs. G. M. Edwards, Mrs. Bean Loe, and Miss Fahy Baughman of Farmerville and Mrs. Ruth Gill of Camdon, Arkansas.

Right Clothes For Right Time Is New Slogan

NEW YORK—A total of 15 men's wear trade associations, uniting in the largest co-operative promotion program in the history of the men's clothing and furnishings industries, are seeking to re-ignite men's interest in proper attire and good grooming.

Alarmed by the decline of lines of demarkation between dress, street and casual clothes and sportswear, the 15 groups have formed the Men's Wear Inter-Industry Council and embarked on an ambitious program of re-education under the theme, "The Right Clothes at the Right Time." Purpose of the plan to make men conscious of the fact that specific occasions require specific attire.

The council has set out to impress upon the nation's men that all purchases of clothing and furnishings should be made with a view toward developing a balanced, co-ordinated wardrobe—a wardrobe that will enable a man to dress properly for every occasion in his life.

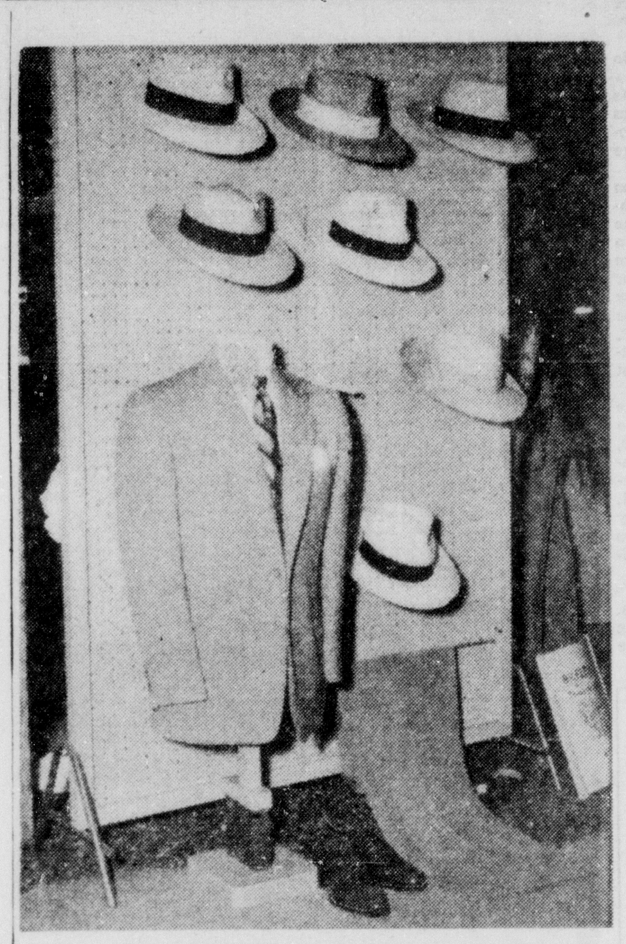

The council is seeking to provide men's wear retailers from coast to coast with information and display materials which will aid in showing men the need for a complete and well co - ordinated wardrobe.

The nation's motion picture industry, spearheaded by three of its companies has joined retail groups and manufacturers in en - dorsing the plan. In announcing his firm's support of the council's program. Walter Plunkett, designer for Metro - Goldwyn-Mayer, declared: "Too many really intelligent men do not know how to dress correctly for occasions. In pictures we are constantly stressing the importance of just what is expressed in this slogan. "The Right Clothes at the Right Time."

The New York football Giants of 1927 allowed 13 opponents a total of 20 points, a record that stands today.

DOUBLE-BREASTED—The double-breasted suit has long been a favorite with style-conscious men. It gives that edge of conservatism which the more informal single-breasted suit cannot.

THE HAT'S THE THING—Summer straws this year offer a wide choice of style and color tone for the fashion conscious male. Solid and printed bands add to the individuality of the hats. Also shown in the picture above are a lightweight summer business or dress suit and a pair of the increasingly popular shoes with mesh tops.

SUMMER SWANK—Typical of men's summer finery is this formal outfit which will be seen at dances this year. The white tuxedo coat is worn with regulation formal trousers. The dark handkerchief which forms a pleasing contrast to the coat matches the formal bow tie.

Modern Trends In Education Topic

Mrs. Josephine McDowell, a member of the Ouachita Parish Grammar School faculty, will discuss modern trends in education at the Ouachita Parish Classroom Teachers Association Monday evening, May 5th. Mrs. McDowell will use as a basis for her theme the findings of the Regional Principals Association convention held recently at New Orleans.

Joe Craig, principal Ouachita Parish Grammar School, will present the 8th grade chorus in several popular numbers.

Mrs. Christine Coleman, president urges all members to be present on this occasion. This will be the last meeting of the current year.

Unity In Men's Wear Trade Points To Prosperity Era

In certain respects what has happened to the men's wear industry—its uniting in a common effort to garner a greater portion of the male wage earner's spending dollar—can be called a revolution. It is a revolution in the sense that highly provincial groups, historically stubborn in their independence of each other, proud of their selling traditions which did not always sell, and suspicious of all competitors, could be welded together to work for a common cause.

Behind the effort, and the greatest driving force of this organization known as the Men's Wear Inter-Industry Council is the Wool Bureau. But backing the wool group are fifteen trade organizations whose membership consists of every important men's wear manufacturer in every sector of the market. They have adopted as their slogan: "The Right Clothes at the Right Time." A multi-headed program reaching the consumer through periodicals and through accelerated education of retailers and their personnel is under way.

The only surprising thing about the program is that it took so long to develop. The most reluctant to cooperate has been the men's suit industry which wore blinders made of tradition and refused to recognize the clear handwriting on the wall. They failed to see the significance of war-time buying—when men showed their style interest by purchasing sports shirts of loud hue and design and they calmly watched the sportswear market increase its percentage of sales in the post-war purchasing period of emphasizing color and fabric texture in their garments and brushed it off as a temporary trend.

Men's suit makers justified their disinterest by pointing to continuing profits. The cries of designers who recognized what was happening were ignored as the trade benefitted from war-time created shortages.

It took the sharp pinch of the soft goods depression—which hit the men's wear trades early and went deep—to break time-moulded policies. Scorn for the up-and-coming sportswear trades wasn't a strong enough weapon to combat this competition. The smart promotions and effective display work of the women's wear trades—hard hit themselves by the buying lull and fighting for business—was cutting further into what remained of the soft goods buying dollar.

It took only a quick look at the figures, which showed that women were spending almost twice as much as men for clothing, to make the men's suit manufacturer realize that his merchandizing policies needed modernizing.

The drive, which is aimed at making men style-conscious and, consequently, aware that he needs more clothes to meet the demands for various occasions, could well be the beginning of the proudest ever in the history of the men's wear trades.

Born in the emergency of the soft-goods lull, it has the opportunity of creating a new group of men's wear standards, not dissimilar in appeal to those which have been the backbone of the women's wear industries. It can develop sales by defining proper wear.

The American male, by the pattern of his purchases for vacation wear; by his happy acceptance of various tie fashions; by his awareness of even such minor changes in men's suit lines are the "Ivy League" look, has demonstrated his style-consciousness. It would seem that the men's wear trade has been slow indeed to take advantage of this fashion-awareness. In the program now underway there are the seeds of a new era of increasing sales based on fashion. It remains to be seen if the seeds, now being so carefully planted, will be properly sown.

Bright Coat Is Newest Thing For The Host

The host who wants to create an extra-special impression will find one of the colorful new jackets exactly right for the purpose. Most extreme in an outstanding collection is bright red. Next in startling qualties is a hound's tooth check in navy, and white. Each one has its handsome satin lapels — the first one, matching red, of course; and the checked model accented with midnight blue satin.

There host or cocktail jackets are part of an interesting group of dinner coats introduced in the Java Weave which is a feature of the 1952 Palm Beach line. Recognizing that television has stimulated interest in at-home entertaining, the colorful jackets were designed to give the most opportunity to look especially distinctive. Light of weight and having the linen-like appearance, these Java Weave coats are to be worn with midnight blue trousers of the same lightweight material.

Regulation dinner jackets and entire dinner suits are available, too, in this fabric, as well as in the always popular Palm Beach type. Single-breasted jackets predominate although double-breasted ones may be obtained. In addition to the regulation summer white, an off-white shade is liked. For any season of the year, midnight blue in this all - season weight is a popular choice for jackets and matching trousers.

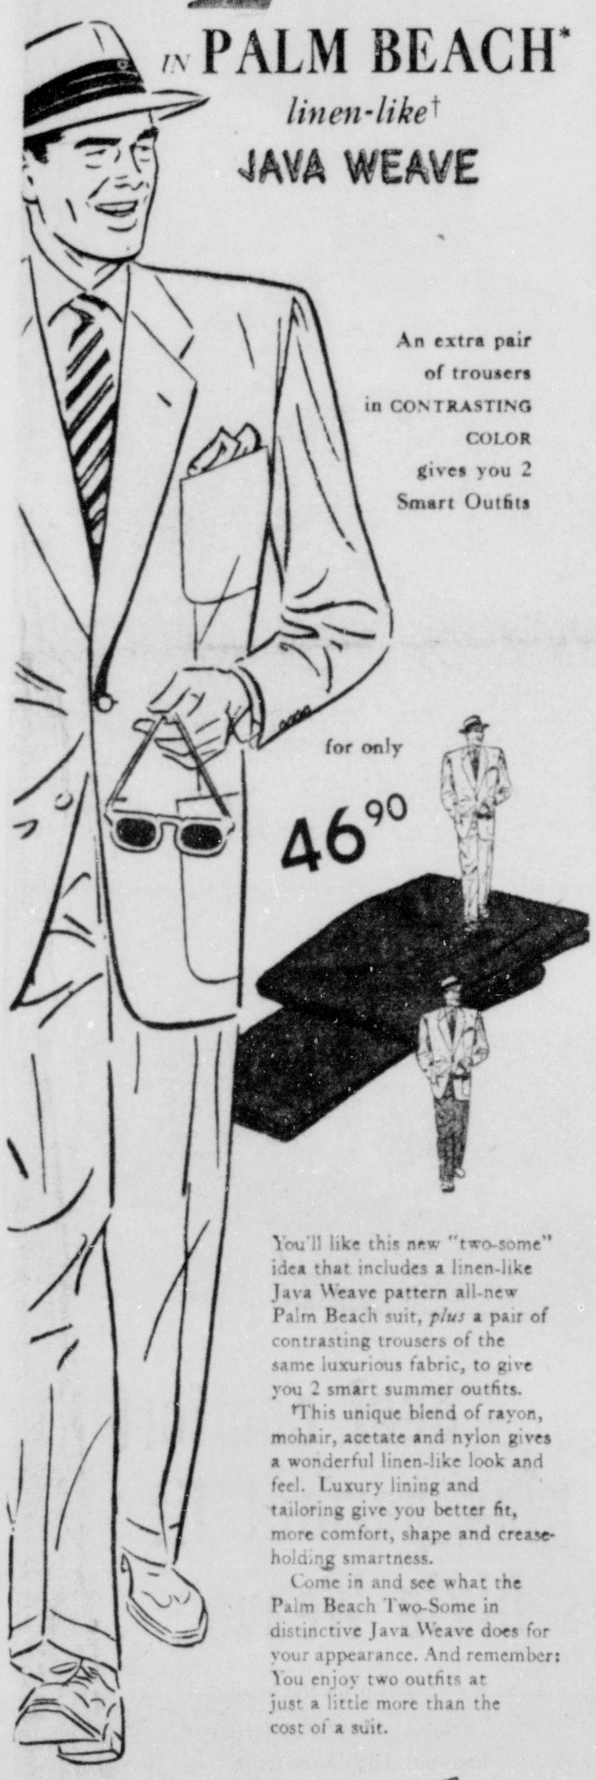

In normal times, about 90 million tons of goods are transported along the Rhine River every year.

JEWELERS OF HONOR AND DISTINCTION

Ties Brightest Spot In Men's Attire

Even though shirts, pants and socks have become more and more colorful, the tie still remains as the brightest spot in men's attire. Almost every color has been incorporated in one pattern or another, and this summer's editions are carrying on the modern trend.

However, this summer's tie will not be as blatant as specimens from the late 40's and early 50's. The color will still be in full bloom, but the shades will complement each other, rather than clashing full tilt.

Advanced fashion circles reveal a sleeper, however. The knitted, solid - color tie, long promoted by college men, apparently has quietly worked its way into favor with post - college men. The latest model has undergone a bit of streamlining, it appears, and is only three-quarters the width of the original knitted tie and is a few inches shorter.

And, the exception that proves the rule concerning color, black bids fair to be the coming color in knitted neckwear. All colors are available, however, and more are coming along all the while.

Still struggling for a place in the fashion field is the shorty bow tie. It has changed little since its modern introduction a few years ago, but it is still considered somewhat daring and, if worn, will give rise to numerous jibes.

The powers in the man's fashion world are now carrying on a high-powered campaign to scuttle the traditional tie that can be worn with any suit, anywhere, and are putting forth ties only suitable for suits of certain colors. They now suggest that three or four ties be purchased along with each suit, and rumors of forthcoming suit-ties-hankerchiefs packages are not unbelievable

The most startling flash on the tie scene is a plaid bow tie to be worn with formal summer dress, including a cummerbund in matching plaid. As far as can be determined, this is not a major trend, but rather another attempt by manufacturers to stir up a more or less static section of man's wardrobe.

Styles For Men This Year Go Back To Old Or More Natural Look

Styles in men's wear this season, as last, will accentuate what might be called the old look. By old look we mean the natural look—before the era of the "rape shape."

For though oversize cuts and padded shoulders are still holdouts in the changing world of fashion, the trend is definitely in the direction of straight and narrow lines, falling unbroken from slant shoulders.

The effect, generally, is to heighten height and minimize width — to give the American male that lean Texas look. The single-breasted suit, of course, is designed to make the lean Texans look leaner, but the double-breasted suit is still as popular as always, and especially with the business-man.

The single-breasted has an informality about it that the double-breasted cannot quite duplicate and, conversely, the double-breasted has that edge of conservatism which so many style-conscious men demand. It's a matter of take your choice.

For these balmy spring days, the man-about-town will probably choose a suit of lightweight fabric—a tropical worsted, rayon, sharkskin, linen, gabardine, or even a light flannel or tweed.

Lightweight means comfort, and comfort is the by-word. Especially designed for wearability are cool rayons that hold their lines and throw off wrinkles at the drop of a hat, or are practical. This spring's rayons are available in a variety of distinctive shades, though gray-blues and tans seem to be perennial favorites.

Solids are a standby in any fabrics, but those whose tastes run to something more eye-catching will find wide selections of stylish checks, subdued stripes and, yes, even overplaids.

Generally, the man who tones his tastes to day and night will choose a lighter weight and probably lighter shade suit for office and street wear and a darker and heavier suit for evening wear.

Modern Vests Had Rich And Colorful Past

The modern vest is a reminder of a rich and colorful past. In its heyday, during the reign of Louis XVI, the vest might easily have passed for a tapestry, a historical painting, a pictorial review of current events, a forecast primeval or a zoo.

To give but a summary description of some of the vests which flourished in the 18th century, some were embelished with garlands and bouquets of flowers embroidered in brilliant silks, others were decorated with pictures representing scenes from La Fontaine's fables, leading scenes in contemporary plays or current events of the day.

Peaceful Country Scenes

Those who had a taste for nature undoubtedly wore a waistcoat upon which huge trees, whose wide boughs spread luxuriously on the breast of the dandy, were planted. Peaceful country scenes, farmers at work, everything that art and nature created were put into the waistcoat.

In 1768 the cloth and silk merchants of the Palais Royal turned out a waistcoat which might have been the envy of Barnum and Bailey. This specimen, dedicated to the animal kingdom, depicted birds, reptiles and a variety of animals—as many as 200 animals were frequently lodged in a waistcoat.

Barracks and Jails

Competition in waistcoats waxed; ingenuity knew no bounds: In order to compete with Lyons, Parisian contractors conceived the idea of waistcoats embroidered with barracks and jails and the typical fop of the period was to be seen in a rose satin vest adorned with wide black stripes between which a cavalryman or foot soldier stood at attention. Those were the days when dress was not merely an art, but literally, a conglomeration of all the arts.

Ambition To Succeed Governs Men's Buying Habits, Survey Shows

The primary emotions of love, ambition and vanity are the impelling forces in buying clothing, according to the first definitive nation-wide survey of the American public's clothing preferences, prepared by the Elmo Roper organization. The man who buys a suit, the survey shows, weighs heavily its ultimate effect upon his business and social prestige.

The survey reveals that 33 per cent of the nation's men hope to impress business contacts with their apparel, 18 per cent to impress women, 17 per cent expect their clothing to draw favorable public attention, and 9 per cent dress for their own self - confidence. The survey was prepared for the Wool Bureau Inc., one of the 15 member organizations of the Men's Wear Inter - Industry Council.

The survey confirms the fact that women's influence over men's clothing buying habits has risen greatly in the last two decades. Forty per cent of the married men said they bought their last suit with their wives present, 2 per cent bought suits with a woman other than their wife present, and 3 per cent of the suits were bought by wives alone. According to the wives their influence is even greater, since seven out of 10 said they influenced their husband's last suit purchase.

Fabric is of primary importance to the nation's men, the study shows. Women know more about fibers and fabrics than men, the survey reveals, and are able to name the basic material in their last suit with greater accuracy. As a way of making sure of good material, 44 per cent of the men put their faith in the store, the suit or fabric manufacturer, or the salesman, compared with only 30 per cent of the women. On the other hand, women put more emphasis than men on the way material feels, 46 per cent as against 40 per cent, and the way it looks, 39 per cent compared wth 36 per cent.

Interviews conducted with 3,000 men throughout the United States established a cross-section of public opinion on the factors which influence American men and women in purchasing suits. Sampling was controlled by economic level, race, geographic area and size of town, and special quotas were assigned for factory labor and employed women to assure proper representation. Two questionnaires were used, one for men and one for women.

Denim Moves Up

Denim no longer can be classed as a "work" material. Long indentified with sturdy clothes requiring hard wear this fabric now has joined the leisure-time group. Outstanding among the sports and lounging clothes on display for spring are many made out of this cotton. Interesting, too, is the variety of colors available.

Noteworthy among the denim newcomers in the St. Louis stores are the slacks and shorts in the boxer style. Blue is considered the accepted favorite but there are shades of beige, green and gray blue from which to choose. Sports jackets are being made of denim, the styles varying from novel pleated models to the conventional patch-pocket type.

Denim footwear is as gay in color as any sports shoes on the market today. The conservatives may choose navy blue, but the more daring dresses will find red, shades to give that added splash of color to their wardrobes.

'Bean Bag' Swim Trunks Latest Men's Beach Wear

Men who complain loudly that there is nothing new in male sports attire will have to sing low this spring as bathing suit wear makes a startling transformation with the advent of "Bean-Bag" swimming trunks.

The "Bean-Bag" is the sports-wear parallel to the legendary figure who could pick himself up by the scuff of the neck and hold himself at arm's length. For this new item in male swim trunks has a pocket that can hold the entire suit.

All the owner of a "Bean-Bag" has to do to make his suit compact is to pull the special pocket out of the trunks, inside-out, and stuff the suit into the pocket.

Since this is the first year the "Bean-Bag" has been put on the market, local retailers are not sure of the reception. However, they are certain that a style that came in last year—semibriefs—will sell even better this season. In fact swim suit departments in some Baton Rouge department stores look for their best sales from the semi-brief style.

There are actually only two bathing suit styles for males — brief and boxer types. The semibrief is a hybrid, following the general lines of boxer trunks, but also having the closer fit and shorter length of the briefs. Most local retailers think the best sellers this year will be semibriefs, boxers and briefs, in that order.

Another recent addition to men's swimming styles is the cabano: combination trunks and short sleeve shirts for beach and resort wear, which were first sold here about three years ago. Cabanos are available in matching or contrasting colors, with most of the shirts having collars.

As for colors, swim trunks for men have changed very little in the past few years. Both solids and designs are as popular as ever, with reds, blues and blacks leading. Black satin suits, extremely popular last season, are being stocked again this year.

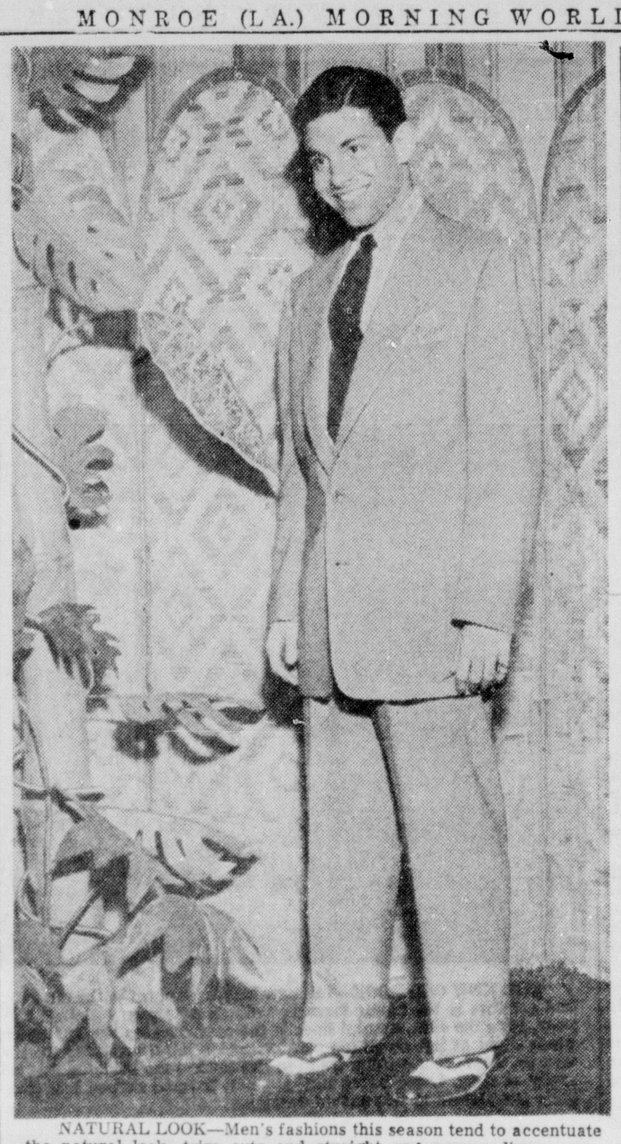

Hawaiian - design trunks are expected to maintain their usual great favor. Prints featuring huge floral patterns are more in evidence than they have been before and will probably give an even more vivid appearance than in past swimming seasons.

As for accessories, men are buying them more and more often especially for use on the beaches. Where once the hardy male lay on the sand to soak up the sun, now he wants a beach towel to stretch out on. The demand has been met with large towels that are masculine in color tone and design.

British Hunting Set Gave Sturdy Covert Its Name

Covert was first sold in America under the name of Orleans cloth, because much of it was shipped to New Orleans during the middle of the last century. It became immensely popular with the British hunting set. Fingertip length top coats of this fabric were worn over the hunting pink riding coat by men and women riding to covert, which means going after the hiding place of birds and small game.

American fabric manufacturers have improved this fabric considerably, by making it of all-wool yarn instead of the older wool and cotton mixture. Due to its tight construction it is practically tear-resistant and will not rip on hikes thru rugged underbrush.

NATURAL LOOK—Men's fashions this season tend to accentuate the natural look—trim cuts and straight and narrow lines.

Masculine Luggage Is Now Streamlined For Traveling

In men's luggage the trend has shifted from the old box-type bag to the two - suiter. The masculine suitcase is now streamlined for less wrinkles and more convenient travel.

No longer is the luggage just an empty case, but is fitted with hangers for suits and compartments for accessories. The popular two-suiter will carry a couple of suits, six shirts, one pair of pajamas, six suits of underwear, eight pairs of socks, one pair of shoes, one sweater, one pair of traveling slippers, toilet articles, 10 handkerchiefs, six ties, one pair of extra sport slacks, and two sport shirts. A complete wardrobe for a week.

These "suiter" pieces are also made to carry three, four, and six suits. They are constructed with soft sides, built around a steel or basswood veneer frame. In the frame work, designers have considered weight limitation in air travel, and have found that these frames will keep the luggage in shape and also save much of the excess baggage charges.

Leather Favorite

Leather is still the favorite material for the man's luggage. It has been considered since the days of the Roman's that leather was for the best in luggage and the association is as strong as 10 - gallon hats for Texas ranches. However, this year plastic has been found to be more resistant against scratching and scuffing.

The leather luggage is made from split cowhide, top grain cowhide, steer hide, California Saddle leather, harness leather, Canadian belting leather and sometimes the Louisiana alligator.

California saddle leather is tanned with oak bark, whereas, the other cowhide is given a chemical treatment. Steer hide, harness leather and Canadian belting leather are stronger than the split and top grain cowhides.

When buying luggage the outside covering, the construction, the hardware, and the lining are the things to consider and look for. On all other better luggage the hardware is solid brass. Also the dye used is an important note. If the leather has been pigment dyed the leather is probably imperfect, as this dye colors completely. Analine dyed, means the dye is transparent, and the leather has to be perfect piece before this process can be used.

Flight bags, known also as B-4 officer's bags, are popular among the man who travels by car. The bag will carry several suits and can hang in the car. These pieces are made from canvass material, sail cloth, nylon or duck. They have inside or outside pockets for packing accessories.

With the sportsman, a club bag is a must. These doctor pill type bags, are convenient for the man who takes short trips, too. These pieces come in 18 and 20 inch size and are made of leather, plastic or canvasses. Take a club bag, throw in an extra suit, a pair of shoes, socks and shaving equipment and you are off!

For the long vacation — a couple of months in Europe or a session at summer school — the hand trunks, fortnighter, or tourobes are the thing. They will hold at least six suits, have compartments, and open on an angle for easy use.

Then, too, the garment bags come in handy for the visit with relatives or the short hops by car. They are made of plastic or canvass and will handle two or four suits.

Small kits on the market for the shaving equipment, too. Luggage is designed for every traveler's needs!

Henry III Of France Great Style Setter

Henry III of France was a great style setter. He had a particular flair for jewelry and the business of bargaining over a chain was the equivalent of a peace conference today, requiring many negotiations between ministers of state jewelers.

Henry is given credit by the fashion reporters of the day for introducing earrings in men's wear, a fashion which had already had a widespread acceptance on the other side of the Pyrenees (styles were not copied as fast as they are today). Furthermore he put this style over with a bang—by insisting that all his courtiers have their ears pierced.

The vogue for jewelry and accessories gained momentum in the 17th century. By the end of the 18th century, men had fairly outstripped the fair sex in the use of adornment. "The hand of a man," reads a style comment of the period, "was like a jewel casket, loaded with rings." In order to see the outline of a man's hand, it was necessary to strip it.

Snuff boxes dominated the accessory picture of the day. Fashion prescribed that they be changed with the seasons—a light one for summer and a heavy one for winter. Good taste required that snuff boxes be changed at least every day.

Straight, Slim Lines Featured In Sports Clothes

Sports styles for men this spring and summer accent the straight and slimmer lines, local men's stores announce.

In order to add height and subtract width from the male contour the spring sport suits and coats will reveal unbroken, hanging lines.

An assortment of lightweight fabrics also will help to achieve the slimmer lines with clear finished and unfinished worsteds, sharkskins, flannels, gabardines and lightweight tweeds leading the fashion field for men.

The day of the sloppy T-shirt and dungarees has disappeared from the golf links as sportsmen are turning more and more to comfortable yet presentable ensembles.

For sport shirts many Baton Rougeans will be attired in loud bold patterns with Hawaiian prints which have shown marked popularity.

Light ground tartans dominate the spring sports picture, featured in odd sports jackets, blazers and the tartan waistcoat.

Tartan is all-important for sports shoes, caps, suspenders and shirts. Sporty topcoats in tweed with zip-in linings have a wide appeal this spring with a resurgence in popularity of the bal collar.

Color and more color in bright clear "jewel-tones" on soft pastel background is the clue to new spring neckwear. Hand painted ties will run rampant in color and design.

Nylon shirts are again expected to be popular with men, especially with the man who travels. These are easy to launder between trains and are also right in step with the picture style of the spring and summer of 1952.

Some stylists claim that nothing will be more desired than the cool, casual look this spring and summer for men who desire comfort while maintaining a well dressed look in sports outfits.

Bathing suits for men have come into their own, featuring every thing from tropical flower prints to hula girl prints. The suits are distinctive as anything milady can wear and the swim shirt has also become standard equipment around the pools, lakes and streams or on the Gulf Coast.

The trend of younger people toward wearing blue jeans is now waning, fashion experts tell us. Corduroy slacks are beginning to take their place.

Another Candidate Seeks Boggs' Seat

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — Another candidate for U. S. representative has announced from the Second Congressional District, held by Rep. Hale Boggs.

Stanley Madere, 52-year-old father of 10 children, said in announcing his candidacy yesterday that he was not seeking the support of any organized political groups with pre-election promises and agreements.

"I am seeking all the honest support I can gather, and if elected I promise to represent the people honestly, faithfully and efficiently to the best of my ability," he said.

Curbstone Cowboy Has Colorful Western Garb

Cowboys of the old days had their elaborately - worked boots and saddles but they wouldn't have had a maverick's chance of beating out present - day drugstore cowboys in a "best-dressed cowhand's" contest.

Chances are, of course, they wouldn't have been caught dead in some of the clothes that are offered for "rodeo" or "Western" wears.

The rodeo shirts are the items in which the manufacturer and the designer feel the urge of a loose rein. Real leather fringes across the front and around the back are nothing compared to the fancy designs embroidered along the sleeves cuffs and collars and around the front and back.

Most of the rodeo shirts feature embroidery of some sort, the fanciness of it determining the price. One extra special number selling for $35 has boots embrodered on the sleeves, wooly horses, heads on the sleeves and a complete horse and rider appliqued on the back.

Gabardine frontier pants are the appropriate accompaniment to the shirts. Fortunately, not much in the way of ornamentation can be done with these.

The men get another chance to go fancy when it comes to ties. These are generally of two varieties, four-in-hands of bright satin with horse-and-rider patterns, and already-tied string ties.

Even hats present a fair variety of choice, depending upon the crease affected by the individual. He may have a single crease down the center, a slight crease or any number of creases, all bearing special names.

The wearer may pay as much as $100 for his hat, if he wants the wear-forever type that uphappily is not guaranteed against loss.

Belts, intricately worked and silved and gold buckels that may be mounted with diamonds and rubies are another dressy item that can run up the dude's wardrobe bill.

Boots come in many patterns, but all with the high, slanted western heel. Prices range from $15-$35, soaring upward with the custommade types.

All the Western clothes have in common a tendency to rise rapidly in cost as rapidly as the buyer wishes. One of them come quite as cheaply as regular clothes, naturally enough as they are specialty items.

Raincoats Appear More Like Topcoats

Raincoats are still around, despite what you see—or do not see—on an average rainy afternoon in the city.

They'll still be around this spring, too. There is no substitute for a raincoat for anyone whose work takes him outdoors for any period of time. You can be wearing one and many people won't even know it.

The newer rainwear for spring 1952 looks more like regular topcoats than ever. In model and in pattern as small checks they are topcoat style, suitable for use even if it isn't raining. But they're water-repellant processed and practical for the average shower.

Come in Many Fabrics

Spring rainwear will include worsted gabardines, worsted rayon blends, all-rayon in tans, browns and greys, cottons and plastics.

The "bal" collar probably will be the most popular in the rayon items, but don't sell the trenchcoat short, with its double-breasted style, all-around belt, full skirt and raglan shoulders. A trenchcoat gives its wearer a certain swagger and satorical confidence.

Plastic Garments

Plastics and the oil-treated garments will give good protection against the heavier downpour, and yet they are light and easy to carry around. Most come with a pouch of the same material.

How Colors Are Blended For Harmony

Since there is a surge toward bright colors in men's clothing, it is important that the proper colors be combined or contrasted to give the best effect possible. There are many possible combinations, but a few examples given by Esquire and enough to start one off on the right foot.

Let's say that you've chosen a blue suit for the day. With a white shirt and a tie of a lighter blue shade or with blue figures, you're all set to go. It might be well to remember that with a blue suit, black shoes are worn to best advantage.

With a tan suit a chocolate brown tie is well suited; or one might wear a blue shirt with a small-figured red and yellow tie. Another good combination is that of brown and black.

Other good colors schemes include the use of tan or brown and green, navy blue and maroon; tan and navy blue. Gray is a verstile color and will suit almost any outfit.

With emphasis on sportswear, it is a good idea to check your slacks and jackets combinations. A checked or pattern jacket should be worn with solid color slacks at all times. In the reverse of this, checked slacks may be worn with a plain-colored jacket. Once again, gray (this time in flannel slacks) is an outstanding way of getting the most combinations possible.

The careful attention to accessories also will contribute much to a well - groomed appearance. Handkerchiefs, that repeat a dominant note of the ensemble in the border are matched by hosiery or shade in the necktie.

The increased popularity of white and off-white shades for summer wear will offer additional opportunity to inject more color into the wardrobe, and suggest many different color schemes to any man who likes to stress a note of individuality in his clothes.

Before you buy pure linen hand towels, note the workmanship, particularly hemstitching —whether hand or machine embroidered and find out if they are colorfast.

Men's Garb Traditional

Despite the innovations of Parisian courturiers and the introduction of the plaid dinner jacket by New York designers, men's evening wear has maintained its traditional classis lines.

The changes that have been allowed to seep into the classic style of the tuxedo have been made with the idea of comfort and not formality. This year, tuxedos and white dinner jackets will incline more toward the natural shoulder and straight waist. With less padding and looser lines the jackets will appear no less smart and will be more comfortable.

New fabrics, noncrushable tropical worsteds, will be escpecially welcomed by Southerners. Tropical fabrics are becoming popular for all year wear.

White Dinner Jacket

As always, the white dinner jacket finds a special place for summer evenings. The shawl collar with round unindented lapels is good again this year, both for summer jackets and regular tux coat.

Tuxedos will be the conventional blue for this year and probably midnight for many years to come. The change from black to midnight blue was made some years ago because the blue shade looks blacker than black under artificial lighting.

There has been considerable viewing with alaim at tartan plaid tuxedo jackets, ties and cummerbunds. Most men, however, feel that black evening clothes can't be beat for elegance.

Opinions vary on the subject of the colorful cummerbund. There is no denying that they are attractive on well-built men, but darker colors seem to have the day. Black or maroon silk worn with matching ties are preferred. Since a great many men prefer to wear their jackets buttoned, the waist bands are not undue attention.

Always Practical

One reason for the year-in-year-out style of the tuxedo is its imminent practicality. In spite of what all men's clothiers can do, many men buy a tuxedo in their college days and with a little alterations and 10-day diets expect it to last all their days. The conservative style fits in with this idea nicely.

More comfortable cuts and fabrics have been introduced from time to time, but any really startling innovations have gone the way of the plaid tux jacket.

And so formal wear remains much the same. The handsome blacks are definitely sophisticated and becoming.

POPULAR SHOE STYLES—In the display of men's shoes above, the popular black and white and even more popular brown and white combinations predominate. Several of the styles have open-work sections, adding miles of cool summer comfort.

Simplicity Is Keynote Of Men's Jewelry

Fashion keynote of men's jewelry this year is the same as men's clothes, simpler lines and smaller shapes.

Fashion experts have come out for comfort and more of it this year, with natural lines in the spotlight and heavy paded shapes being seen less and less.

Jewelry designers have come up with corresponding styles in accessory pieces, especially tie-clasps, which are shorter and slimmer in proportion to smaller shaped neck-ties.

News in formal jewelry is a trend away from the staple idea of blue and maroon stones, according to local buyers. Peals and solid gold cuff-links and studs are way out in the fashion front this year.

Soft Collars

Returning to the dress scene this year are soft collars with eyelets, and along with them, new styles in collar bars. One of the newest designs was modelled after the lowly safety pin.

New styles being seen in novelty jewelry, seem to be particularly aimed at the sportsman. Novelty styles in tie-clasps have been modelled after golf clubs and tennis rackets. One type featured locally is a fishing rod, complete with a thin gold thread of a reel.

The sportsman's motif is also being seen in tie - clasps with matching cuff links. Two of the styles aimed at hunters are a gun tie-clasp with small gold bird-dogs for cuff links and a whip tie-clasp with two saddles for cuff-links.

Tie Chains Popular

Becoming more and more popular is the use of the tie-chains, instead of tie-clasps. Many men have decided that chains are more comfortable because movement of the body does not dislocate the tie held down with the chain.

Although gold is more popular than silver in men's jewelry, silver is more practical for the tie-chain because it can be worn with all types of ties and all types of shirts.

Shirts with barrel cuffs are outselling French shirts this year, but cuff - links remain a popular gift item for men. Cuff-links in the shape of the owner's initial are expected to attract many French shirt addicts.

Also popular in the initial trend are initialed belt-buckels, although personalized buckles are still way behind the classic, regular tongue plain buckle, as much a perennial favorite as the white shirt.

The undisputed place held by this type may be threatened by a new slide buckle, designed to fit any length strap. Many stores are stocking it because of its flexibility, for it can be snapped on any standard width belt.

LIBRARY TAX VOTE IMMINENT

Tuesday, May 6, will decide the fate of the Ouachita parish public library. On that day the voters of the parish will vote either for or against the renewal of the one-half mill property tax, which is the main support for the four branches of the Ouachita parish public library.

Mrs. Bernard W. Biedenharn, chairman of the board of directors for the parish library system, urges all property owners to vote for the tax "to insure a good library for the youth as well as others in the parish."

"In spite of all that has been said and written," Mrs. Biedenharn said, "there are still some people who think that their taxes will be higher if they vote for the tax. This is definitely not so. It is simply a renewal tax and carries with it no increase in rate. Your taxes will remain just the same as they were last year."

A recent survey by the Carnegie Corporation, the chairman pointed out, showed that the public library is used most frequently by persons with advanced schooling and that persons who own many books of their own are more apt to be library users than those who do not. The survey also showed that high school age students use the library more frequently than any other group and that one fourth of all the books read in this country come from public libraries.

The Ouachita parish library operates on the smallest tax and one of the lowest rates per capita in the state of Louisiana. The one-half mill means that property owners pay 50 cents on each $1,000 of assessed property valuation. As the situation now exists, everyone in the parish has access to 34,000 volumes of the library collection by merely walking to the library and registering.

'Sharp' Togs For Youngsters Found In Colors Of Rainbow

As many "sharp" clothes are hanging on the hip-high racks of local stores as they are on the shoulder - level cross bars. And in some respects, the junior division will have it all over their broader-shouldered brothers and dads.

A carry - over from last winter, but still popular are little boy ensembles which come complete with French cuff shirts. Adding to the carbon copy of the bigger sizes are matching cufflinks and tie bars.

Junior's chief advantage is in color. While his older prototypes are just breaking away from the conservative shades ordinarily allotted men, the smaller fry are capable of getting together a wardrobe that resembles a basket of eggs on Easter morning more than anything else.

His shirts come in every conceivable type of stripe and combination of hues. There are sedate solids too, but the trend leans distinctly in the direction of prints ranging in theme from piracy to jet propelled aviation.

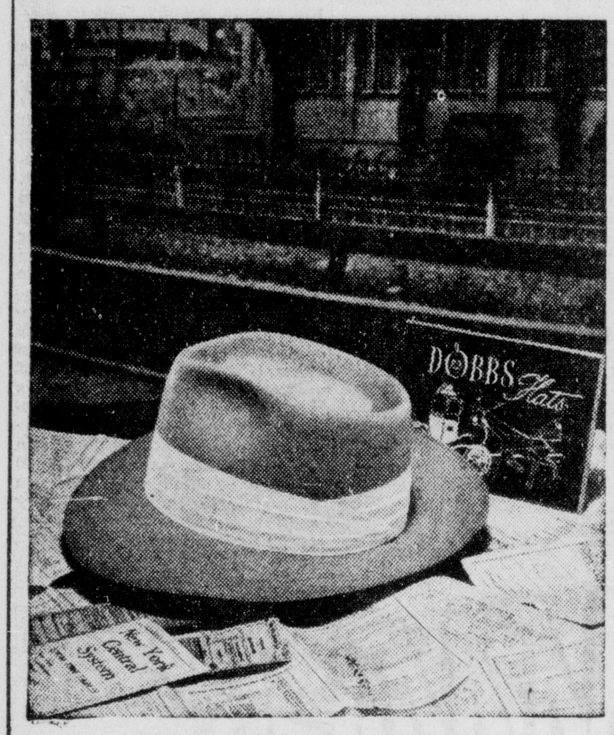

The popular T-shirt continues to offer the best in color, with some models available in identical pattern not only in the men's and boys' departments but in Mama's and sister's corners of the stores as well.

Unpretentious navy blue wool swimming trunks are an item that would be hard indeed to find in today's stores. In their place are a variety of 20th-century fabrics in colors to rival the rainbow effect of the sun shining through splashing water.

And for the beach — or backyard swimming pool—this year is something new. Now available are beach sets comprised of wild-print trunks with reversible coats. On one side of the coat is water-absorbing terry cloth, while the other matches the trunks.

Pajamas still come in traditional quiet stripes, but for the more imaginative of the younger set are ones with landscape prints. And the open-toed sandal which Dad has just gotten used to wearing when the mercury zooms is still the favorite summer footwear for boys—that is when they're not barefoot.

Shorts, all varieties, are stacked ceiling-high in all stores. But the blue jean counter is still a busy corner. And to assist in their retailing in some stores, Western comic books are stapled to the pockets as lagniappe.

DELHI SEEKS FOR INTAKE APPROVAL

Submits Plans For Water Plant Proposed Construction

Vicksburg, Miss., —(Special)— The Vicksburg district, corps of Engineers is considering the application of the town of Delhi, La., for approval of plans to construct a water ntake and pumping station, as a source of town water supply, to be located on the east side of Delhi and on the west bank of Bayou Macon, 600 feet north of the center line of U. S. Highway 80 and 87.7 miles above the mouth of Bayou Macon.

The plans submitted indicate that the proposed installation will consist of a reinforced concrete intake structure located on the slope of the west bank of the bayou. One 15-inch C. I. intake pipe will extend from the structure to the center of the stream.

Plans may be seen at the office of the Vicksburg district, Corps of Engineers, Post Office Building, Vicksburg, Miss., the Vidalia area office, Vicksburg district, CE, Vidalia, La., or at the office of Porter, Barry and Associates, consulting engineers, Baton Rouge, La. All interested parties are invited to communicate with the district engineer, Vicksburg, Miss., at the above address, expressing any objections to the proposed installation, or suggesting any changes that may be considered desirable, particularly as to navigation. It is requested that such communications be forwarded to reach the district not later than June 3, 1952.

ART AS HOBBY BRINGS PROFIT

Royal Academy Accepts Kenner's 'Cello Blues' For Exhibition

NATCHITOCHES, La., May 3.—(Special)—A Northwestern (La.) State College art teacher who took up art as a hobby and who has been seriously interested in the field only since 1948, has recently received one of the highest tributes which can be paid any artist in the world.

Grant F. Kenner's "Cello Blues," a piece of sculpture (direct carving in Georgia marble), has been accepted by the Royal Academy of Art in London for the annual summer exhibit.

This outstanding work by Kenner is a modern version of a man playing a cello. It was chosen over thousands of art works submitted to the Royal Academy from artists of the world.

This is not Kenner's first honor of this nature or scope. Last year his "Torso," a woodcarving in walnut, was accepted and exhibited by the Royal Academy. It was one of about 20 works of sculpture accepted out of 40,000 assorted art entries.

The judging in London of Kenner's new work was held on March 25 of this year. Members of the Royal Academy judged from offerings by artists whose names and nationalities were kept secret during the selections.

Before coming to the college here in September, 1951, Kenner taught at the University of Chicago's laboratory school and worked on his masters degree in art. Prior to that he had received his BS degree in chemistry and mathematics from that institution. Kenner's home is Salt Lake City, Utah. He served three and a half years with the Army in England during World War II. After the war he worked in the DuPont atomic plant in Richland, Wash.

Kenner is married to the former Regan Kislingbury of London, England. They have two children.

MILLSAPS WILL GRADUATE 113

Class From Eighth Grade To Have Exercises May 26

The eighth grade graduation exercises of the Millsaps School will be held in the Crosley School auditorium on the night of Monday, May 26, at seven-thirty. Principal speaker for the occasion will be Judge Jesse Heard, recently elected judge of the district court. The certificates of graduation will be presented by Mrs. Chrissie Williams, Ouachita parish elementary supervisor.

Out of a class of 113 members the first honor student is Helen Richmond, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Richmond, who lives at 1011 Cypress street. Helen has attended Millsaps in the seventh and eighth grades, having attended Mitchell and Crosley schools in West Monroe, as well as Istrouma school in Baton Rouge and Block school in Jonesville. She is very active in all school and class affairs, being class secretary in the eighth grade and vice president in her home room.

Second honor student is Dianne Martin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Martin, residing at 313 Circle Drive. Dianne has attended Millsaps for all of her eight years in school. She served as program chairman of the eighth grade and as reporter for the Millsaps 4-H Club, of which she has been an active member for the past three years.

Third honor student is Eleanor Ruth Wallace, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Wallace, Jr., of 1306 North Third street. Eleanor attended Ransom and Crosley schools in the first five grades and has been at Millsaps for the past three years. She has been an active member of the 4-H Club and has always been prominent in class affairs.

ST. MATTHEW'S TO GIVE PLAY

St. Matthew's seniors will present their play "Cheaper by the Dozen," on Monday evening, May 5, at 7:30 p.m. in the school gymnasium.

The father, Mr. Gilbreth, portrayed by Frank Ticheli, is an efficiency expert. Not only in business but in home life as well. He teaches his family how to do things more efficiently and in less time.

Mrs. Gilbreth, played by Annette Pitarro, is constantly the peace - maker, keeping good-will in the family.

When Dr. Burton, the family physician, played by Julius Fontana, tells Dad that he has only six more months to live, Dad immediately sets out to get the oldest girl, Anne, played by Jimmie Fox, graduated from school before time so as to have someone to help mother. The oldest girls don't understand why Dad doesn't want them interested in boys and social life. When Anne's boyfriends, Joe Scales played by J. A. Lacara, and Barry played by Ralph Norman, begin to call, then the fun starts. The serious note to the play is in the last act when Dad is leaving for a world conference on efficiency and explains why he insists on getting ahead and saving time. A real picture of this family's life is during the "family council" when mother and dad and the twelve children are assembled to work out their problems.

The scene for the play is the Gilbreth living room. This scene is set with furniture and colors of that period. The characters wear the traditional costumes of the twenties.

Just as Mr. and Mrs. Gilbreth were a familiar sight around town in their Pierce Arrow filled with their dozen children, so will Monroe's family of Gilbreths be seen riding in their car on Saturday and Monday.

Trinity Baptists To Be Pastors' Host

The Ouachita Parish Baptist pastor's conference meets in the Trinity Baptist Church Monday at 10 a.m. Rev. Filer J. Seal is pastor of the host church.

According to Rev. O. P. Bazer, secretary, an interesting program has been planned.

Rev. R. B. Kitchenham, pastor of the Faith Baptist Church will bring the inspirational message.

Rev. C. S. Cadwallader, Jr., pastor of the College Place Baptist Church will bring a devotional. It is expected that a large number of the pastors of the thirty four Baptist churches in Ouachita parish will be present. Lunch will be served by the host church.

U. S. DESTROYERS SLUG IT OUT WITH ENEMY

SEOUL, Saturday, May 3 (AP) — Two U. S. destroyers slugged it out with Red shore guns Wednesday in Wonsan harbor in what the navy today said was the longest such duel of the Korean war. Both destroyers were hit but damage was slight.

Action was light both aground and in the air Friday. The Communists made some probing jabs in the east. Pilots said one MIG-15 probably was destroyed in a clash between 22 U. S. Sabres and four Red jets over northwest Korea.

The Wonsan battle began when the destroyers Maddox and Laffey steamed into that besieged east coast harbor and began bombarding beach targets. Their five-inch guns blew up a large supply area, and destroyed a bridge and 10 rail cars.

At noon, the Red coastal artillery opened up. The exchange thundered on all afternoon. The navy said about 125 shells fell close to the Maddox, splashing the gunners and punching several minor holes in the hull.

The Laffey then turned its guns on the shore batteries. The Reds threw about 170 rounds at the Laffey, but there was no major damage.

Varieties Of Straw Hats Offered Men

Straw hats, as always, are the big news in the hat industry at this time of the year. And the industry is doing everything it possibly can to make the public "straw conscious."

Hat makers are practically wringing their hands because of the casual way of dressing American men seem to be drifting to. And with casual dress, the first thing apparent is the lack of a hat.

To combat this swing, straw hats are being offered in more different weights, colors and styles now than ever before. And if you don't like straws, try a cap; they're on their way back too.

Prices Vary

Prices of straws? Anywhere from $5 up to $50. Caps, colored, plaid or plain, can start at the very bottom of the ladder almost and zoom up to around the $10 figure.

As a further inducement to buy straws, manufacturers are offering diferent colored hat bands that can be quickly fastened to any straw so it will match the suit then being worn.

Incidentally, contrary to rumors you may have heard, derbies are definitely not on the way back. It's the dignified Homburg that's making the most hat progress among well dressed men, says a popular hat magazine.

Except as a service gesture in a couple of high-grade factories, rough bodies for derby hats aren't even produced any more. A slight increase in derby sales might be a reasonable conjecture, in view of the increase of international travel and traveling Americans picking up a derby in London. But none of New York's swank hat shops reports any increase in demand for the derbies.

Actually, no one particularly wants to see the derby revive in volume. Its production would call for skilled hand-curiers who don't exist today. It would require confomateurs and men trained to use them in the retail stores. And the derby lasts the customer half a lifetime.

Uses Homburg

When an American wants the aristocratic look that the Britisher achieves in the derby, he buys a dark Homburg, either black or mid-night blue.

To persuade American men to buy more hats, the industry is stressing the "protection" angle of wearing a headpiece. Done with full color illustrations, each ad will portray a different adventurous type of male in the traditional headcovering he uses for sensible protection. An informative caption under each picture tells the protective origin and purpose of the hat.

Main text of each ad ties up the theme with the modern fashion hat: "Your hat, too, is meant to protect you. It protects your hair from sun and soot, guards your eyes from painful glare, wards off the cold that can chill your head as well as your feet. Just as a practical matter, it's wise to wear a hat."

With that kind of selling, the industry is well on its way to putting hats back on the heads of millions of American males.

REVERSED HEAD

President Truman adopted a new Presidential flag, with a redesigned Presidential seal, on Oct. 26, 1945. Up to that time, the head of the American eagle on the seal had been turned toward the talon holding the arrows of war. Truman had the head reversed so that it faces the talon with the olive branch.

Men's Shoes Call For Cool Feet

What are men wearing in shoes this spring? From the current trend in men's footwear the answer is an easy one: cool feet.

Accenting the trend which was new last spring, men have turned (and are turning) en masse to the lightweight, ventilated shoe. This type of footwear is the answer to men's prayers and complaints. Gone are the deadweight of heavy, all-leather, airtight gunboats which soon have the wearer's feet feeling like the inside of a steamed clam.

With this innovation, which rfeatures a nylon mesh top, men can really have spring in their step, and a cool step it will be.

When nylon was first used for the mesh top, ventilating effect on men's shoes a season or two ago, experts said the top covering was not the proper weight and style of material.

This time around, however, the experts have been compelled to revise their observations. For the new style of air-admitting mesh has been devised, and the male will know what it means to have cool feet.

The old adage that there is nothing new under the sun, must be the credo of the typical Baton Rouge male, for men's shoe styles haven't changed drastically or otherwise since a season or two ago. some observers claim.

The real difference is in the lightening and improvement of the materials that men's spring footery was made of previously. There may be a cut or a crease here, and a lighter weight there, but mostly, it has been observed, the main stride has been improvement and lighter weight.

One style which has become more popular in the South this year is the cloth shoe. The cloth is usually loosely woven fiber upper on thick rubber sponge or plastic foam soles. This popular design comes in two tone colors, two shades of the same color or solids. These last offer men a choice of several pastel colors.

While two-tone shoes are still popular, a tribute to the college boy's all-purpose saddle oxford, the predominant choice seems to be the brown and white favored over the black and white. The tan and brown and other combinations of conservative shades are also in demand.

As an economy note, the thick rubber or cleatrack sole shoes will give the wearer all he wants and have some left over. Purchasers of this type of shoe will invariably declare that the tops wear out before the soles.

Another shoe style that is coming more and more into its own is the laceless one, the loafer. This air-cooled job has a rubberized band either across the top of the insteap or below and on each side of the ankle. These allow the wearer a quick slip off and slip on — without use of his hands in many cases.

The pattern in evening shoes remains the same, black smooth kid in a plain shoe or straight tip, are the favorites. Men's choice for dress wear, however, feature a wider range, but here the the pick is predominantly brown.

SPEEDY UNLOADERS

3,000 PINTS OF BLOOD NEEDED

Plans are again underway by the local Red Cross for the bi-monthly visit to Ouachita Parish by the Bloodmobile unit from the Jackson, Miss. headquarters. In order to meet Ouachita's 1952 quota of 3,000 pints of blood for Korea, intensive recruiting of blood donors has already begun in preparation for June 10, 11 and 12, when local volunteers will assist the personnel of the Bloodmobile unit.

Similar visits of the Bloodmobile have already been scheduled for August, October and December of this year. Contrary to popular belief, there has been no let-up in the demand for blood for our fighting men, and all quotas have been raised recently.

Scheduling committees are already at work making appointments for donors, and it is hoped that definite dates can be assigned by May 15.

Donor cards may be secured from Mrs. John Guerriero, 508 Rochelle, Mrs. H. K. Litton, 2816 South Grand, and Mrs. Van Pratt, 409 College, for distribution in residential areas.

THUNDERSTORM SLUGS MONROE

A thunderstorm hit the Twin Cities last night around 9:15 with winds reaching 50 miles per hour at the beginning of the storm and tapering off a few minutes later to speeds of 15 and 25 miles per hour.

Bill Love, chief electrician for the city of Monroe, said that power failures were felt in all parts of the city due to the extent of electricity in the storm.

Winds were sweeping the down town streets with a flurry so great that neon signs hanging from shops and business establishments were swaying heavily under the pressure.

During the storm police were notified that a man was struck by lightning at 601 Oak street.

PREFERENTIAL ELECTION IS CALLED FOR

By OTIS B. HASSELL

WINNSBORO, La., May 2 (Special)—At a special meeting of the mayor and board of alderman of the town of Winnsboro on March 26, a resolution was unanimously passed that application would be made for passage of an act by the state legislature authorizing and directing the mayor of the town of Winnsboro, Franklin parish, Louisiana, to hereinafter appoint the marshal of said town by and with the advice and consent of the board of alderman, beginning with the closing of the current term of office of said marshal; to fix the salary of said marshal; and providing for discharge of said marshal, in the event he should fail to fulfill his duties.

A statement signed by Mayor Robert F. Mulhearn and Aldermen James D. Mays, W. B. Scriber, C. C Nelson, John B. Snyder, and Nolan C. Moore, and published in the Franklin Sun Thursday, May 1, said in part.

"We the undersigned, the mayor of Winnsboro and board of aldermen, have called for a preferential election on May 13 for the purpose of letting the people decide for themselves whether their town marshal is to continue to be elected to office, as he presently is, or whether a chief of police will be hired by the town. If you decide to let the mayor and board of alderman appoint your chief of police we shall immediately prepare and present a bill before the forthcoming state legislature providing for such authority." . . .

"Few towns or cities of any size elect the law enforcement authority today. The town legislative and executive authority is responsible directly to the people for the public security and welfare. Under the present system, we are entirely apart from the chief of law enforcement; yet, we must hire and be responsible for, his assistants. This lack of uniformity in government has, for many years, been generally unsatisfactory."

"While the preferential election is not required by law, preparatory to a request for legislative approval of the appointive system, we honestly solicit your approval or disapproval of our proposal to abolish the elective office of town marshal and create the office of a hired chief of police. In other words, we will not act until the people have spoken. We also want you to know that if we do not make this change now it cannot be made for six more years due to requirements of the law." Let the public speak."

George Ferrington, the present town marshal of Winnsboro, who was elected to serve a four year term, two years ago, had this to say about the proposal to abolish the elective office of town marshal.

"I feel a deep concern about the matter. It is more than a personal slap in the face; it is a matter of public interest. The town officials say that their proposal is not designed to discriminate against the present marshal meaning me of course. I think otherwise. I also view the entire matter as a slap in the face of the majority of the citizens of Winnsboro who voted for me. The town officials are saying in essence, that the people in Winnsboro are not competent to elect their own law enforcement officials, and that they, the mayor and board of aldermen, are more competent than the people to select the town marshal."

CITY Business Is BIG BUSINESS!
IT'S ALSO YOUR BUSINESS

DID YOU KNOW?

Because of poor business administration, the City of Monroe will have $416,000.00 less this year than before to spend on its regular operations. That amount is pledged annually out of the earnings of the power plant to pay our new bonded debt. This amounts to about 1/5 of the City's regular income.

WHERE DO WE GO FROM HERE?

Unless the operation of the City's business is put on a sound basis—like any business should—the City will need more funds for its routine operations. I am opposed to additional taxes in any form, and so are you. This means that we must practice strict economy, and stop spending more than we make. We must eliminate the "unaccounted for" water, the waste of electricity, and the losses in our bus system. Unless these things are done, we face more trouble.

HOW DO YOU WANT THE CITY RUN?

On a political basis? I think not, and for that reason, ask for your vote and support. I propose to operate the City's electric, water and bus systems as any business SHOULD be run; to get the City out of the RED and into the BLACK.

IF YOU, AS A CITIZEN AND STOCKHOLDER, WANT DIVIDENDS FROM YOUR BUSINESS.....

W. L. 'JACK' HOWARD
For MAYOR

HOWARD STANDS FOR PROGRESS

A LEADER

Compare the candidates' records. No other candidate even comes close to Jack Howard's record of progress and accomplishments in business, civic, and public affairs. He has distinguished himself in the following groups and activities: Community Chest, Optimist Club, American Legion, V. F. W., Industrial Development Committee, Lions Club, Jaycees, Red Cross Board of Directors, Delta Council, Baptist Orphanage Tour, Goodwill Tours, City Planning Committee, Toastmasters Club, Brotherhood Week. His enthusiastic leadership has earned him the applause and trust of all citizens.

A MAN OF INTEGRITY

Monroe cries out for a man of integrity . . . a man of honesty . . . a mayor who is not a politician . . . a man who is not interested in perpetuating himself in office. Jack Howard is a man whose guiding principle is integrity. His basic creed is a deep, unshakable belief in honesty and morality. When he makes up his mind that a thing is right and just, he will defend it to the end.

Let's All GO AHEAD!
Let's All GO HOWARD!

DICK TRACY

by CHESTER GOULD

NOTE: BONNY BRAIDS IS 1 YEAR OLD TODAY!

CRIMESTOPPERS TEXTBOOK

WHERE FINGERPRINTS OF A SUSPECTED PERSON ARE WANTED, ARTICLES HE USUALLY HANDLES CAN BE COATED WITH A THIN FILM OF OIL OR A MIXTURE OF GLYCERINE AND GELATIN TO RETAIN THE IMPRESSION. Dick Tracy

NOW, TO GET ON WITH OUR STORY—

HORSE MEAT

PUT ON YOUR COAT.

MEANWHILE—

IT WAS A PROFESSIONAL JOB—PLACED FOR SUDDEN DEATH. THE KNIFE, A WELL WORN BUTCHER'S MEAT KNIFE.

THEN, TONSILS' STORY ABOUT DUDE TRYING TO GET OUT OF THE RACKETS MAKES SENSE, EH?

SURE, AND THE CODE OF THE UNDERWORLD IS A MEMBER NEVER GETS OUT.

"INCIDENTALLY, TRACY, TESS CALLED AWHILE AGO AND SAID FOR YOU TO PICK UP A CAKE! TODAY IS BONNY BRAIDS'S BIRTHDAY," SAYS THE CHIEF.

YES, JUNIOR, BONNY BRAIDS CAN CREEP.

AND AT THE TV STATION.

TV

OH, THE RAINBOW TURNED MUDDY WHEN YOU TURNED ME DOWN

IT'S ALL MAIL FOR YOU, DOT VIEW, BUT 90 PER CENT OF IT IS PANNING YOUR NEW SINGER.

WHAT DO I CARE AS LONG AS IT'S MAIL? I THINK HE'S TERRIFIC.

CAN I TAKE YOU HOME, LIKE I DID LAST NIGHT—DOT?

YOU DARLING!

SCENE: A TIRE SALVAGE YARD—

THERE'S NO WATCHMAN HERE, EITHER. THIS JOB SHOULDN'T BE TOO HARD.

Reg. U. S. Pat. Off. Copyright, 1932, by The Chicago Tribune

LET'S GO.

Little Orphan Annie

"WATER-LEVEL ROUTE"—"DREAM BOAT"—"SHRIMP BOAT"—IT'S STILL JUST A RAFT, DRAGGED BY A SCOW—BUT IT'S TRANSPORTATION....

ARF!

RAFT THEY WERE USIN' TO PAINT TH' BARGE—FORGOT 'BOUT IT—SURE CAME IN HANDY WHEN THAT OLD ROWBOAT SANK—

NOW, HERE WE GO, LIKE ON AN OBSERVATION CAR— —WISH THERE WAS A DINER HOOKED ON HERE—

CAN'T LOOK AHEAD— ONLY BACK—MUST BE WHAT THEY MEAN BY "LIVING IN THE PAST"—ALL WE CAN SEE FROM HERE IS HISTORY! HM-M-M—THEY CLAIM YUH CAN LEARN FROM HISTORY!

WE'RE OUT O' TH' HARBOR— SHORE'S GETTIN' FARTHER AN' FARTHER AWAY— FEW GRUBBY LITTLE ISLANDS—LOT O' GULLS STARIN' AT US, LIKE SEAGOIN' BUZZARDS, HOPIN' FOR TH' WORST, FOR US! SHOO!

OH, WELL—WE'RE ALIVE—TH' SUN'S UP AN' DRYIN' US OFF— WHY WORRY? WE'RE GETTIN' A FREE RIDE— LET'S ENJOY IT!

NOT A FANCY SCHOONER—OLD AND BATTERED—SO MUCH THE BETTER—EH, BOYS?

QUITE SO, SAHIB—

WE COULD HAVE FLOWN IN, OR ARRIVED BY LINER—BUT WHAT'S THE RUSH? THIS WAY WE AVOID REPORTERS—

5-4-32

YEP—SLIP INTO A SLEEPY RIVER PORT— —AT NIGHT—NO UPROAR—BETTER SO— AFTER ALL, I'M ABOUT FORGOTTEN—WHY STIR UP MEMORIES?

LITTLE ANNIE! AH, TO SEE THAT BRAVE LITTLE TYKE AGAIN—THAT'S REALLY ABOUT THE ONLY REASON I HAVE FOR COMING BACK—LET'S FACE IT!

GENTLEMEN, I CAN'T TELL YOU HOW PROUD I AM — AS A COOPERATIVE WEATHER OBSERVER ON REYNARD ISLAND FOR THE U.S. DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE FOR ALL THESE YEARS — THAT THE GOVERNMENT IS BUILDING A REAL WEATHER STATION HERE!

WE'D BETTER TAKE OFF NOW, MR. NEIL!

SORRY YOU LOST YOUR SUPPLY VESSEL, MAJOR! I HOPE YOU WILL HAVE REPLACEMENTS SOON!

WE WILL, MISS NEIL! — BUT IN THE MEANTIME, LIEUT. FORGE IS TRYING TO SALVAGE THE GEAR THAT SANK!

SO YOU'RE THROWING ME A BONE BY LETTING ME STRAW BOSS A SALVAGE CREW ON THAT JUNK PILE THAT HIT THE MINE!

THERE WAS NO MINE, MISTER FORGE!

HUH!

I PLANTED A CHARGE ON THAT TUB, LOADED IT WITH OBSOLETE EQUIPMENT UNDER WRAPS — THEN SET IT OFF AT A BLINKER SIGNAL FROM NIMBUS NEIL!

WHAT KIND OF TUNDRA JUICE IS THIS?

NONE!.. YOU WERE BROUGHT ALONG ON THIS DEAL, NOT AS PUNISHMENT FOR THE ERROR YOU ONCE MADE, BUT BECAUSE YOU'RE A GOOD SALVAGE MAN!

TO FLOAT THAT OLD HUNK OF IRON?

NO — BECAUSE AT THE EXACT SPOT WHERE SHE SIGNALED ME TO SINK THE SCOW, NIMBUS NEIL SAW AN OBJECT HIT THE WATER... AS FAR AS WE KNOW SHE, ALONE, WITNESSED IT!

SAW WHAT HIT THE WATER?..

ONE MORNING, WHILE ALL THE NATIVES WERE AT HER DAD'S RADIO SHACK LISTENING TO SOMETHING, SHE WENT UP TO REFUEL THE BLINKER...

AN OBJECT CAME ROARING OUT OF THE MIST AND CLEARED THE HILL BY INCHES... IT WENT ON AND HIT THE WATER!

SHE HAD A GOOD LOOK... AND RECOGNIZED IT AT ONCE... IT WAS A GUIDED MISSILE THE RUSSIANS HAD FIRED FROM A SUBMARINE AND LOST ON THEIR RADAR SCREENS!.. IT'S OUT IN THE HARBOR NOW...

ALL THIS CAMOUFLAGE IS SO THE RUSSIANS WON'T KNOW OUR REAL PURPOSE HERE! MEANWHILE, YOUR JOB IS TO BRING THAT BOMB UP — SECRETLY — AND INTACT!

THAT'S HIM!

YEAH!

HMM-DRAKE! HE'S A BAD ONE! HAS A RECORD AS LONG AS MY ARM!

THE PLANE PILOTS, AT THE ROGUES' GALLERY--

I'M A FRIEND OF THE GIRL, DIANA PALMER. SHE WAS KIDNAPPED--

--BY THE 'COPTER PIRATES? YES. WE'VE IDENTIFIED THE LEADER, DRAKE, AN INTERNATIONAL THIEF.

FINDING THEM'LL BE TOUGH! THE PLANE WAS ROBBED MIDWAY BETWEEN THOSE TWO CHAINS OF ISLANDS. THE 'COPTER COULD HAVE GONE EITHER WAY..

MAN, I WOULDN'T KNOW WHERE TO START LOOKING!

BESIDES, IT'S OUT OF POLICE JURISDICTION. WE'RE TURNING THIS OVER TO THE NAVY.

BUT THAT MIGHT TAKE MONTHS-- THANK YOU FOR THE INFORMATION.

WEST. SAY, MAYBE THAT GIRL WAS PART OF THE GANG!

SURE, WHY ELSE WOULD THEY TAKE HER?

GULP-- I WAS JUST TALKING--

DON'T START FALSE RUMORS! IT'S DANGEROUS!

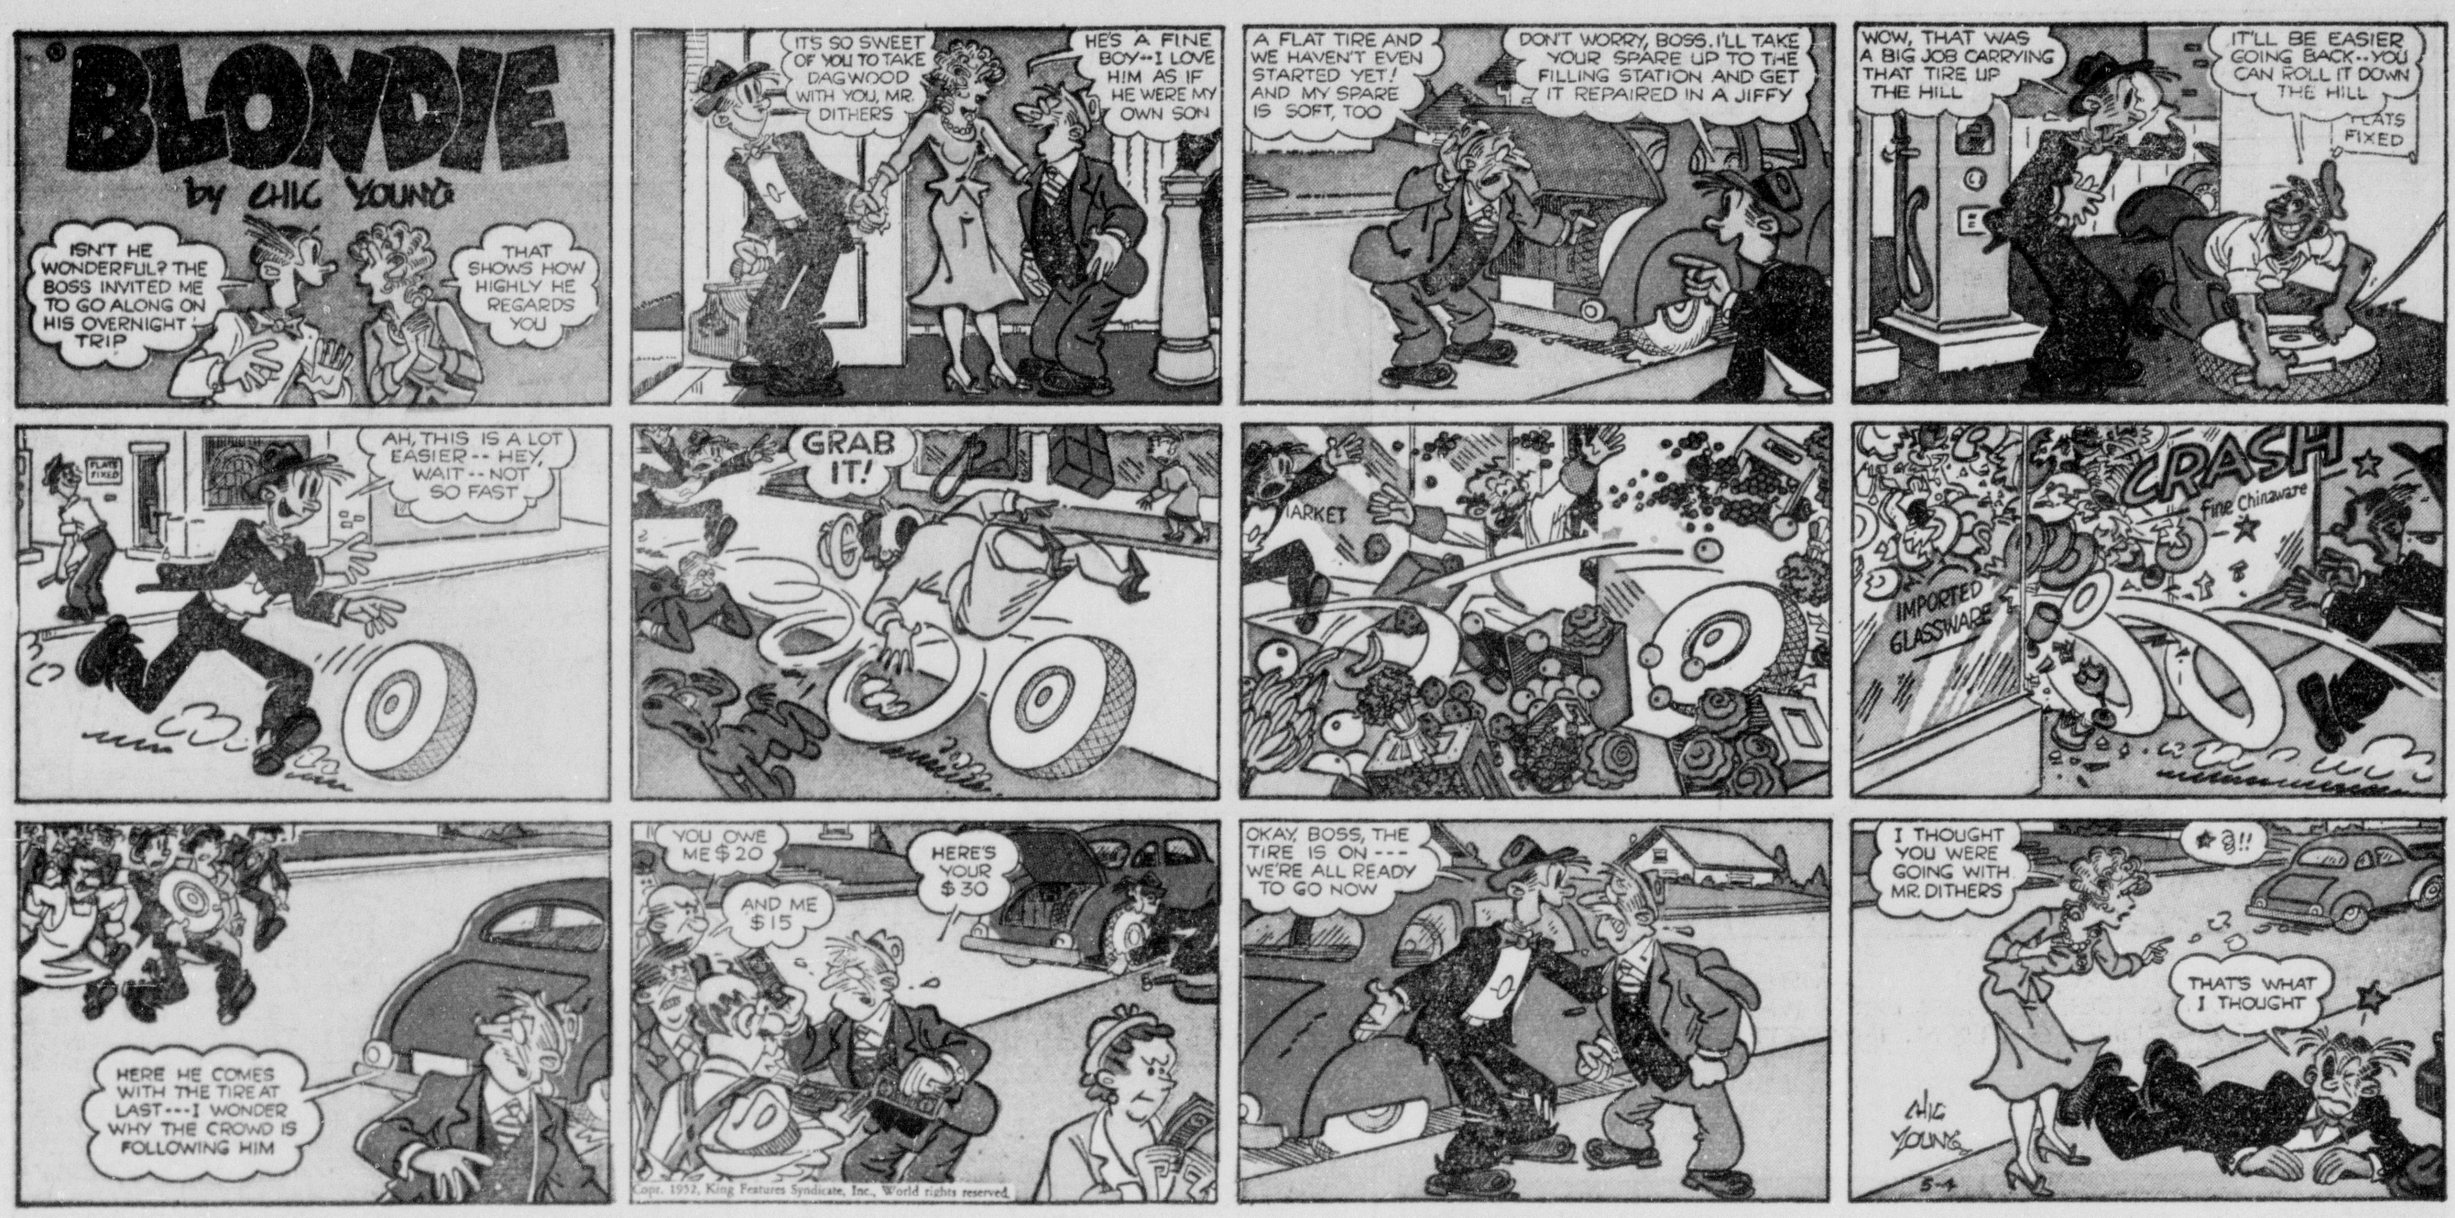

ME-- GULP-- TOO--

A SWEET WASH IS A CLEAN WASH

Surf guarantees you a sweeter wash than any soap, any other detergent

Just one wash with Surf— one sweet, clean wash — will tell you why we can make this guarantee so confidently.

A Surf wash is so clean, smells so much sweeter because Surf not only gets out the dirt and grime you can see in clothes . . . it also reaches deep into the fabric and gets out the hidden dirt—soap scum and odor—that other washday products leave in.

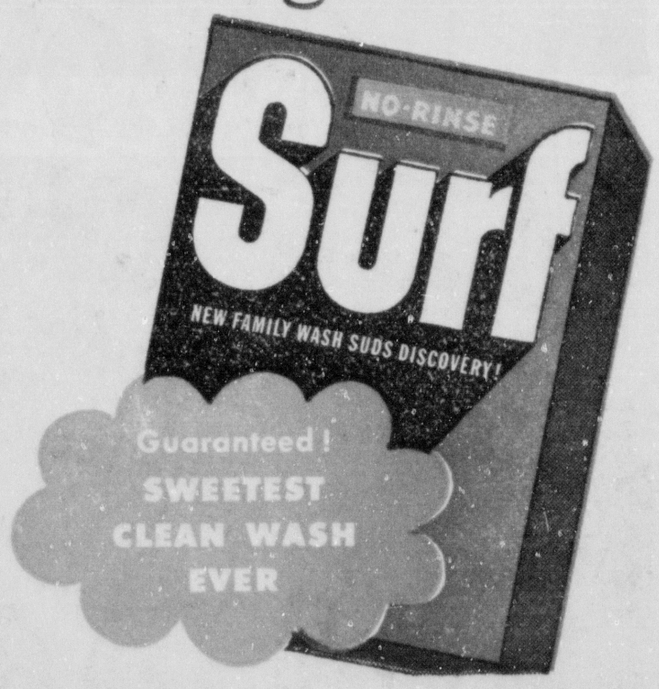

You'll know what a sweet, clean difference Surf makes when you compare your Surf-washed clothes with ones you've washed with the product you have been using. With Surf your clothes will smell as clean as they look, and look as clean as they smell. And that sweet, clean smell tells you your sparkling white Surf-washed clothes are clean clear through.

Surf is kind to hands, too. So switch to Surf for a sweeter clean wash — in any make of washer, any kind of water!

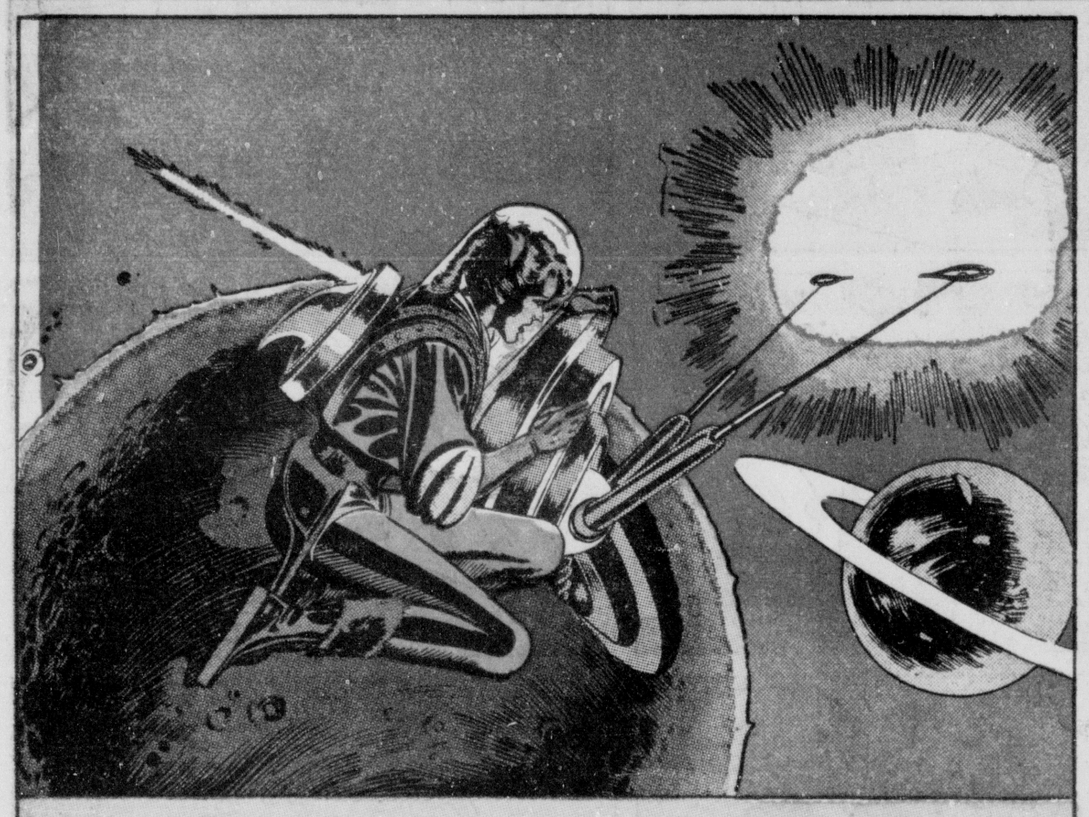

Unconditional guarantee! The makers of Surf—Lever Brothers Company—guarantee you the sweetest clean wash you've ever had — regardless of the product you now use, with or without rinsing — or money refunded.

Banish dishpan odors! Sweet-cleaning Surf banishes dish-washing odors . . . cuts grease as no soap can. Dishes, glassware . . . the stickiest pots or pans come sparkling clean. No scouring or polishing . . . no wiping needed! Surf leaves no film on dishes, no greasy ring on dishpan . . . and that sweet, clean smell reminds you that Surf's new formula is kinder than ever to hands.

CAST ADRIFT IN SPACE, DALE CLAMBERS ONTO A TINY SPHERE THAT CROSSES HER PATH WHILE REVOLVING IN ITS ORBIT AROUND SATURN. INVESTIGATING HER HAZARDOUS PERCH, SHE ACCIDENTALLY TOUCHES A SPRING LEVER THAT OPENS A HATCH, TO REVEAL A COMPLEX MASS OF ELECTRONIC OBSERVING AND SIGNALING DEVICES.

MEANTIME, BACK ON RHEA, A SCIENTIST DISCOVERS THE ACCIDENT WHEN HIS RECORDER RECEIVES SCRAMBLED SIGNALS. "OBSERVATION SATELLITE 17-3 IS OUT OF ORDER," HE REPORTS. "SOME BATTLE DEBRIS MUST HAVE FOULED UP ITS TELE-SENDER."

THE SPACE-SCANNER IS QUICKLY FOCUSED ON THE TROUBLE AREA AND DALE'S IMAGE APPEARS ON THE SCREEN. THE RHEAN KING ORDERS HER RESCUED ALIVE. "I WANT TO MAKE TESTS ON THESE EARTH-LINGS," HE SAYS COLDLY... "TO SEE HOW MUCH RHEAN GAS WE NEED TO KILL THEM WHEN WE CONQUER THEIR PLANET!"

A "RESCUE" ROCKET, WITH FLASH ABOARD AS INTERPRETER, IS DISPATCHED TO THE TINY SATELLITE. THE RHEAN SHIP CUTS ACROSS THE SCOUT-MOON'S ORBIT JUST AS DALE, HER OXYGEN SUPPLY EXHAUSTED, LETS GO AND DRIFTS AWAY INTO SPACE, UNCONSCIOUS.

DALE IS QUICKLY TAKEN ON BOARD THE RHEAN SHIP, WHERE THE ANXIOUS FLASH USES HIS UTMOST SKILL TO REVIVE THE AIR-STARVED GIRL. "DALE, DARLING, DON'T DIE!" HE WHISPERS, AND IS RELIEVED AS SHE STARTS BREATHING WEAKLY.

WITH MOST OF THE RHEAN CREW OUTSIDE REPAIRING THEIR SCOUT-MOON, FLASH SEES HIS BIG CHANCE. SUDDENLY, USING A JUDO TRICK, HE FLIPS A SURPRISED GUARD OVER HIS SHOULDER AND SNATCHES HIS SPARK-GUN. "FIRE THE LONG-RANGE ROCKETS!" HE ORDERS, AS THE SECOND GUARD LOOKS ON DUMBFOUNDED. "WE'RE BLASTING OFF FOR A TRIP TO EARTH!"
